

THREE PRISONERS BROUGHT DOWN BY MACHINE GUNNERS

JOLIET GUARDS OPEN FIRE ON FLEEING MEN

Fourteen Convicts Are Missing From Prison In Florence, Ariz.

By The Associated Press
Three prisoners were shot to death, fifteen escaped and prison guards were apprehensive tonight as a result of outbreaks in two penitentiaries during the last 48 hours.

At the Illinois prison in Joliet, guards with machine guns mowed down three convicts who made their way over the walls Sunday on a crude ladder made of sticks taken from the prison bakery. Searchlights were turned on the trio by the guards and they were dropped in their tracks before they could reach two automobiles waiting nearby.

At Florence, Ariz., fourteen convicts escaped from the state prison by climbing over the wall. One was captured and the rest were being tracked through the sagebrush by bloodhounds.

At the Ohio state prison at Columbus, where a fierce riot occurred after 320 prisoners were burned to death in a fire last Easter Monday, the Columbus Dispatch said yesterday there were rumblings of trouble. The story said that it was reported to officials that improvised weapons were in the hands of prisoners and the guards were prepared for any plan that might be brewing.

The three prisoners shot at Joliet were members of a detail of convicts who were working on the state road. They were Joseph, a detail of convicts who were working on the state road. They were Joseph, a detail of convicts who were working on the state road.

NEWSPAPER MAN IS WITNESS AT INVESTIGATION

Magazine Editor Recites His 21 Accusations Against Officers

Des Moines, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Opening testimony in the legislative investigation of the University of Iowa administration was heard today by Verne Marshall, managing editor of the Cedar Rapids Gazette, on the stand.

Marshall, a member of the Iowa City board of education, testified that he had been asked to investigate the charges against the university administration. He said that he had been asked to investigate the charges against the university administration.

The nature of the charges ranged from improper handling of university funds to the removal of a professor from the Western athletic conference.

The major portion of Marshall's testimony dealt with the waiver of the board of education of $28,762 interest funds to the Rockefeller foundation's $2,225,000 gift to the university medical college. The gift was placed in the Iowa City bank of which W. J. McClellan, university treasurer, is president.

Marshall alleged that the state lost $14,000 because President Walter A. Joseph, W. R. Boyd of Cedar Rapids, chairman of the finance committee, and McClellan invested some of the Rockefeller money without the board's consent, in bonds bearing less than the required five per cent interest.

University officials admitted waiving the interest amount but contended that the money was invested by McClellan and earned enough interest to equal the amount that would have been made had the bank paid the interest.

The Norbury Sanitarium weather bureau report showed that the highest temperature yesterday was 41, current 43 and low 35. The barometer stood at 30.17 last night; it was 30.19 Monday morning. Rainfall was .10 of an inch.

Illinois: Partly cloudy to cloudy Tuesday and Wednesday, possibly rain in extreme south portion, slightly warmer Tuesday in north portion, colder Wednesday in central and north portions.

Missouri: Partly cloudy in north, mostly cloudy in south portion, possibly rain in extreme south portion; slightly warmer in extreme north portion, colder Tuesday in north portion, slightly warmer Wednesday in south portion, except possibly rain in extreme southeast portion, colder in north portion.

CITY PRIMARY, MARCH THIRD

One week from today, Tuesday, March third, is primary day in Jacksonville. Since the announcement of candidates, the Journal and Courier are endeavoring to present to the people each candidate, as he sees it, in the light which would give the people an idea of who he is, and his own announcement as to his position before the people. The decision is up to the voters of the city.

Whether it may be the choice of the voters next Tuesday, the important thing is, to vote. As a rule primary voting is light, but there is no reason why any citizen who is able to get to the polls should stay home on primary day. Every man has an interest in the community and should seek to further its welfare, as he sees it.

The vote is a privilege which every citizen over 21 years of age in this city enjoys. It is also an obligation and a responsibility. Every vote counts and it carries with it the expressed wish of the citizen who casts it. He thus does his part in governing the city, and is negligent of his duty if he does other than seek what he honestly believes to be the best interests of the city. This he can do with his ballot on next Tuesday.

TOUCHY ITALY

The touchiness of Italy regarding utterances of American government officials is becoming rather amusing and perhaps a bit aggravating. The Italian government now asks for full details of an address delivered in New York by Assistant Attorney-General John Lord O'Brien Saturday night, in which he is said to have referred to Premier Mussolini indirectly. The official has already said he was simply making some comparisons, and meant no offense to the Premier. It appears as though Mussolini believes he has a right to maintain a record of utterances of United States officials, and that every time one of our national leaders opens his mouth, he is likely to put his foot in it, as far as Italy is concerned.

The apology which Mussolini received from Uncle Sam for the remarks of General Butler may have given him the idea that such behavior-pardons are handed out over something like hot-dog sandwiches, but he may have to change his mind. He should have noted that the government did not push the court-martial of Butler, and he might find it profitable to study the reason. Ours is a nation where free speech and free press are enjoyed, and it is somewhat failing to have a man who has established an absolute dictatorship in his own country try the same stunt by long distance.

Northminster Church Activities

One hundred and sixty-nine members and one visitor were present at Sabbath school. The offering was $7.71.

Good attendances were present at the regular worship hour services. The following members met at the church Sunday afternoon to make plans for the every member canvass: Vincent Vieira, H. H. Vasconcellos, Rev. Harry Lothian, John DePrates, Mrs. Grace Ferreira, Mrs. W. P. Timmerman, Mrs. L. Arch Vasconcellos, Charles E. Souza, Cal Vieira, Clifford DeOnnellas and Henry DePrates.

Secretary Vincent Vieira reports the following Sabbath school members were not absent during 1935: Betty Fernandes, Clemente Day, Bernadine Souza, Henry A. Souza, Fred E. Day, Mary Fernandes, Jean Lothian, John DePrates, Wayne Day, Willa Smith, Vincent Vieira.

A "Hard Time" social will be given Tuesday evening at the church.

Mid-week prayer service Wednesday evening at 7:30.

The Gleaners class will give a musical Thursday evening. There will be a mock wedding. Refreshments will be served.

The Violet class will serve burgoos Thursday, March 5. Other eatables will also be served.

HOSPITAL TRUSTEES

PLAN MEETING
The monthly meeting of the board of trustees of Passavant Memorial hospital will be held at the hospital on Tuesday evening, at seven-thirty o'clock.

The World And All

By Charles B. Driscoll

A Bit Booky

Albert Payson Terhune's latest book, "A Dog Named Chips," is a quaint conceit throughout. It has a very original plot. Published, as usual, by Harper. Terhune, it may or may not surprise you to know, is a very well educated man with a strong liking for and good knowledge of the classics. As a boy he lived in Rome, there his father was pastor of the Presbyterian church. I hunt through haystacks and rockpiles for conversationalists, and Terhune is, I think, the best one I know. I enjoyed another conversational lunch with him recently, and I don't know how he pulled through it, but it rested me up for a whole week.

"The Adventures of Hawke Travis," by Eli Colter (Macmillan), is a well-written story about a Western man of fifty years ago. But I do not care for gunmen or their life stories, whether the subjects be living or dead. Well, perhaps I should note one exception. I do love pirates and their stories. But pirates are different. And if I don't stop right here, I'll be riding that pirate hobby again.

But "Fiddlers' Green" is the best book of the sea that has been written in many a day. In fact, nothing at all like it has ever been written. It's by Albert R. Wetjen, published by Little Brown. I advise everyone who likes the lore of the sea to read it forthwith, and then read it aloud to his wife.

I used to hear my father (who was a full of sea lore as a New York magistrate's court is of shysters) talk about hunting for someone or something "from here to Fiddlers' Green," but I had no idea what that mysterious place was. It is where sailors go after they are drowned at sea. A sort of happy hunting ground for mariners. This book tells all about it, and about the Old Man of the Sea, and about the drowns and the rows and the rows. Well, I may be childish, but this is the kind of book I prefer before all mystery stories and books about platform-struck explorers.

"Shoe The Wild Mare," by Gene Fowler, published by Liveright, is better than "Trumpet in the Dust," by the same author, and, as I may have told you, I think that quite a bit. Fowler is going to write some powerful books if he lives another generation. He has a style, and I'll give you a new potato in cream for every novelist with style you can discover this spring.

Cyrano De Bergerac is my favorite character in fiction. Rostand's play of the name is undoubtedly the best thing that has ever been written about the dashing Gascon with the long nose (although Rostand was adjudged guilty of plagiarizing the plot from an Indiana man), and I don't think anything better on the subject of long noses and romantic ne'er-do-wells will ever be written. But Paul Faval has written "Salute to Cyrano," published by Longmans, a mighty welcome addition to my shelf of Cyrano literature. Faval has a sense of the dramatic and dramatic almost appreciates the great sword-brings in D'Artagnan, the Man in the Iron Mask, and Louis the Sixteenth. He even makes room for a dandy crew of Barbary pirates in his crowded stage. It's a good book.

If your youth was associated with an American church in a small town, you'll like the atmosphere of "Old First," by Lawrence Perry, published by Farrar & Rinehart.

"Thunder Above the Sea," by Heinrich Hauser, published by Liveright, is a strong love story with an aviator hero and the noise of airplane engines running through it.

"To the Victor," by Henry Von Rhatz (Longmans), is another one of those hot love stories with the Foreign Legion for flavor. Since I do not like foreign legions or mercenary soldiers, I can't get the romance of this book, but others may be luckier with it.

Bluffs

Bluffs, Feb. 23.—Miss Velma Hender entertained a group of her friends Saturday night. The evening was spent in dancing and cards and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Those present were Floyd Priest, Willard Jackson, Thomas King, Robert Carlton, all of Winchester; Robert Hyatt of Meredosia; Mildred Mueller, Margaret Brockhouse, Alta Nortrup, Essie and Helen Hender of Bluffs.

Russel Wills of Springfield was the Sunday guest of the Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wills household.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Arnold of Quincy were the week end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Arnold.

Harold Bowers, Kenneth Bridgman and Wayne Gregory, students at Greenville Business College, spent the week end at their homes in Bluffs. The former was a guest at the I. B. Bridgman home.

William Cissena of Quincy was a Bluffs visitor last Sunday. Harold Frowhouser was a Naples visitor Saturday night.

V. W. Mueller, Jacob Albright and Olin Mueller were Jacksonville business visitors Saturday.

ALLEGED FORGERIES

Centralia, Ill., Feb. 23.—(AP)—William Hann and Stanley Gribbon arrested here late Saturday, alleged to have forged checks through a confidence game by means of soliciting magazine subscriptions at Germantown, were taken to Carle today for preliminary hearing.

Police said the men allegedly handed their prospective subscribers checks which were signed by the subscribers who believed they were the order blanks.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
Author of "You Can't," "Up," "Just Among Friends"

A MOTHER OF 13

A MOTHER of 13 children has sent me a letter from the Southland. She tells me that she reads these brief talks each day, and that she wanted to thank me for them, but most of all to give me encouragement. Thank you, good mother!

She has thus given to the world a very happy one as her earthly still living. Five boys (a doctor, a lawyer, a business man, a farmer, and a minister) and four girls. What a proud mother she must be, certainly. She deprecates her lack of education and many other things, but how few there are anywhere who have so added to the wealth of the world.

Just think of this, dear mother, when you get discouraged and tired—how you have multiplied yourself, and how each one of those you have so bravely and courageously borne, will multiply every fine and generous thought and act that you have ever had and done.

A very humble home, this mother wrote me about—no complaints or regrets in her letter. Just thankfulness because of her opportunity and service, and happy because she was privileged to be a mother of so large a family. She says that her hands are those of a working mother (Are any hands so beautiful?) and that her face is wrinkled and her body worn from the tasks of the years but that all her children love her, regardless of the changes of time. Well, that's what makes mothers so beautiful and choice!

This mother has known sorrow, too—four of the 13 taken from her earthly love.

Could a writer be more highly honored than to be read by a mother of 13 children? To this one, a great honor than to be read by Royalty, or in the halls of the high and mighty. Just to know that such a mother—reader has been found is worth all the long hours of toil to produce such simple offerings as these talks.

No mother has even been adequately honored, or too lavishly loved. To this writer it seems about time that a few Distinguished Service Medals were pinned upon the breasts of a few mothers. I would like to see it started with this mother of 13!

AMBITIOUS TO RANK AS BEST MAYOR

Washington, Feb. 23.—(AP)—With holidays for all but President Hoover and congress, the capital devoted itself today to celebrating in earnest the 19th birthday of George Washington.

President Hoover remembered the father of his country yesterday by attending divine services. He occupied the pew in Christ church in which George Washington often sat. With him were Mrs. Hoover and their oldest grandchild, Peggy Ann.

The broad avenues of the capital were lined with stars and stripes waving in a brisk breeze. Here and there the flag of foreign nations fluttered from the balconies of the embassies and legations. Most of the churches held patriotic services but all lay organizations postponed until today the usual exercises.

Military Mass Said
This morning a military mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception was the principal service, attended by a large body of American Legion members and a guard of honor of marines from the Quantico, Virginia, base. Part of the picturesque ceremony was a presentation of muskets colored.

In the afternoon memorial Continental Hall was the chosen scene of a program sponsored by the Daughters, Sons and Children of the American Revolution.

While devoting most of the day to work congress set its meeting hour early to permit the annual exercises in the house. Departing from the pattern of accepted custom, reading of Washington's farewell address was dispensed with, and an address by Representative Beck of Pennsylvania, substituted.

All government departments remained closed for the day and non-governmental population joined in the holiday through widespread half day closing of business houses.

Among those who were shopping in the city yesterday were Mrs. W. H. Robinson, Kenneth Morris, Miss Eunice Gilliam, Oscar Davis, Roy Simmons, Allen Chrisman, Henry Kory and Thomas Hardwick.

George Hardwick, Allen Chrisman, Clarence Kory, Frank Rockwood and Lewis Kory attended the funeral of L. L. Sappington in Winchester last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dunham and family of Jacksonville spent Sunday with Chester Funk and family.

The Ladies' Aid society at planning to serve lunch at the W. H. Robinson sale which is to be held Tuesday, Feb. 24.

There were no church services here Sunday night on account of illness of Pastor J. B. Roosa of Jacksonville.

Miss Louise Robinson of Jacksonville arrived Saturday night and Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. Ruby Upchurch and son were callers in Jacksonville Saturday.

Miss Verrena Barry spent several days last week with relatives in Jacksonville.

James Sawyers returned to his home in Bluffs Sunday after visiting the past two weeks with relatives here.

Vernor Robinson is on the sick list this week.

RAIDS SPEAKEASIES

Waukegan, Ill., Feb. 23.—(AP)—A move to dry up Lake county was launched here yesterday when Sheriff Lester Tiffany raided three alleged speakeasies. John M. Andracki, Leonard Townsend, and John Sedel were arrested after quantities of alleged liquor were taken at each place.

MEETING AT HOSPITAL

A combined meeting of the Board of Trustees and the training school committee of Passavant Memorial hospital will be held at the hospital at noon today. A luncheon will precede the business period.

MRS. MOULTON OF WHITE HALL TAKEN BY DEATH

White Hall, Ill., Feb. 23.—Mrs. Ella Moulton, 66, member of a prominent Greene county family, died at 11:30 a. m. Sunday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marcus McCollister, three miles southwest of White Hall. Her health had been falling for two years, and she was unconscious more than a week prior to her death.

She was a daughter of the late Major E. A. Giller, prominent in Grange activities in his day, who served with Company C, First Illinois Infantry, War of 1846. He came from England in 1842 and settled on Apple Creek Prairie, southwest of White Hall, where Mrs. Moulton was born December 3rd, 1864. She and E. D. Moulton were married August 28, 1890. He was prominent in agricultural affairs, and one of the organizers of the condensed milk industry at White Hall. He died January 8, 1907. Their children are Lora, wife of Marcus McCollister; Avis, wife of Henry Rockhouse, and Carl, residing on the home farm, all residing on Apple Creek Prairie. William died March 20, 1930. There are twelve grandchildren.

The surviving brothers and sisters are Attorney William M. Giller, Omaha, Neb.; C. H. Giller, T. E. A. Giller and Mrs. Saphronia Rickard, White Hall, and Mrs. Lora Curtis, Stockton, Ill. The deceased was a member of the Apple Creek Prairie club. Funeral services will be held Tuesday. The stock judging team of the University of Missouri, twenty in number, will make its annual pilgrimage to Gregory Farm next Wednesday, in charge of Prof. Don Chittenden, department of animal husbandry. Prof. Chittenden has been making annual visits here for the past twelve years. He timed this year's coming in connection with the sale of Percheron horses on this day. The young stock judges will have opportunity to pass on the horses for comparison with the buying public as will be reflected in the bidding.

LOCAL A. A. U. W. IS SENT WORD OF CONVENTION

Semi-Centennial to be Held at Boston April 1-12; Extensive Program

The Jacksonville Branch of the American Association of University Women has received word of the semi-centennial or fiftieth anniversary convention which the national body will conduct at Boston, Massachusetts April 1-12. It is probable that some one from Jacksonville will represent the local group. Arrangements for which will be made in the next meeting of the A. A. U. W. when it will be a matter of discussion.

The first four days of the convocation, April 1-4, will be devoted to a Meeting of Council of International Federation of University Women held at Wellesley College. At this time Marie Ginsberg of Geneva, Switzerland will be in attendance and expects to lecture before branches of the A. A. U. W. and other groups on subjects relating to economics, library science, the woman's movement, and the position of Geneva as an international center. She is also prepared to offer lectures on the social work of the League of Nations and the relation of women to the League. Miss Ginsberg is well equipped to speak on these topics since she has been an economic librarian at the secretariat of the league since 1920 and has acted as interpreter at meetings of women's organizations in Geneva.

Another convention period of particular interest is that of Thursday, April 9, which is entitled Education Day and follows for its program a series of discussions led by well-known educators. The morning session has "Research in Early Biological Manifestations" as its topic and will have as its leader, Dr. George D. Stoddard, Director of the Iowa Child Welfare Research Station, the University of Iowa. "The Present Status of the Progressing Elementary School," "The Clinical Approach to the Study of Childhood and Adolescence," and "Current Changes and Experiments in Secondary Education are also scheduled for the morning. In each case, leaders and participants already named are authorities in their particular line.

The business session of the conference is set for Saturday, April 11 at which time the legislative and other important association matters will come up for consideration. Dinners, receptions and teas are planned for the delegates who will use the Hotel Statler as their headquarters. Sightseeing tours throughout neighboring territory are also scheduled. Of special interest should be the historical pageant which will be given in the ball room of the hotel on Thursday evening, April 9.

The local branch is very desirous that members make the trip from Jacksonville and urges them to make arrangements to do so if it is at all possible.

MRS. A. H. TODD HAS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Every one has a birthday each year and many live from year to year without a thought of the passing of time. But when the event occurs on the same day as such a great man as George Washington, the friends of those who are so honored can hardly pass the occasion without celebrating. So the friends and relatives of Mrs. A. H. Todd pleasantly surprised her at her home, 843 North Main street Sunday, Feb. 23, and it being the birthday of she and their daughter, Florence, and also that of Donald Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Scott, there were three birthdays celebrated. The total of 72 candles. Along with the events of birthdays it was also the 24th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Todd. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Scott and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crouse and son Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Scott, Misses Francis Stanton and Marie Lynch, Mrs. Mary E. Lazenby and Mack Lynch.

H. S. DRAMATIC CLUB

TO MEET TODAY
Dramatic Club members of the high school will meet this afternoon after school for a program. The committee in charge of the program announces the numbers to be given as follows:

Brief History of the Drama—Cory Green.
The Early Theatre—Eleanor Rhodes.
The First Actor—Leo James.

PLAN HARDTIME SOCIAL

A "hard time social" will be held at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at Northminster church. It is a free affair for all members and friends, and guests are urged to come not dressed up. Games are being planned which will include a field meet between a couple of colleges.

Charles Hardy, of Springfield, was in the city yesterday looking after business interests.

MATRIMONY

Word has been received at MacMurray College of the marriage of a former student, Miss Helen Lawson, daughter of Mrs. Maude Lawson of Spain to Philip M. Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoffman, also of Pekin. The wedding was solemnized Thursday, Feb. 19th in the First Presbyterian church in Pekin, at 4 o'clock, the Rev. W. M. McBride, in charge of the service.

Mr. Hoffman graduated from Pekin High school and was a member of the class of '27 at MacMurray. She was a member of Belles Lettres society. For the past few years, Mr. Hoffman has been teaching in the Douglas school in Pekin.

Mr. Hoffman was graduated from Bradley Polytechnic at Peoria and attended University of Illinois. He is a member of Beta Sigma Pi fraternity. For the past three years he has been connected with the Peoria Auto Parts Company.

Following the wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman left for New Orleans to witness the Mardi Gras. On their return to Pekin, they will make their home with his parents for a short time.

DEFENSE OF U. S. IS SUBJECT OF D. A. R. ADDRESS

A definite understanding of the present status of America's "National Defense" was clearly given by Colonel George E. Seaman of Taylorville, nationally known in American Legion and R. O. T. C. work, in a patriotic address delivered before members and friends of the D. A. R. Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Rev. James Caldwell, Chapter members were hostesses at their annual patriotic vesper service given at the chapter house.

Colonel Seaman was especially delighted to speak on the subject of "National Defense" Sunday as it was an appropriate topic to be discussed on the birthday anniversary of the first president, who always had the thought of national defense close to his heart and utmost in his mind. In every phase of his life he worked extensively for its growth and was at times distressed over whether or not it would always be adequately treated. The only defense policy country has ever had since beginning of the nation until 1920 was the farewell address of Washington.

The true facts of our national defense situation, Colonel Seaman reminded his audience, are disheartening and for that reason few speakers dare speak freely of it. That is one of the results of the why it is where it is today. Not in any critical attitude but for definite purposes, Colonel Seaman pointed out that in our American history we have not had trained men, and until America disciplines her armies with some idea of unity and training, she will in no way better her defense. Soldiers can be given a gun, told to shoot and carry orders but what good will such methods bring if they are not trained how to shoot and properly instructed how to follow orders.

Thousands and thousands of men lost their lives in the World War because of lack of experience. American soldiers would far surpass those of any nations if they were given the opportunity to learn strategy that other countries insist that their men have.

Heads of the outstanding patriotic bodies in America have recently met in conference to study our defense situation and have found that the defense forces in United States have been cut until it continues that we have no army or navy left. This group of men attempted to lay foundation for an organization to develop some means of building up a national defense program. When the American people can defend actions on the subject in congressional delegation there a great step toward preserving it will have been made. People in general have become gradually accustomed to believing a lot of "hoosey" spread around by communists and propagandists, who at times present beautiful theories which lack any hall marks of practicability or discipline.

Warms Against Pacifists
In order that any headway be gained in a national defense program Colonel Seaman pleaded that we must unify activities of all patriotic societies immediately. We must watch many "sugar-coated" speakers, who are not intelligent enough to know the actual conditions and who try to smear over many facts which will cause distress. Seaman says to "repress their gab" so they won't lead away the children as well as the irresponsible adults. The third thing which is necessary to do in order to carry out a program of national defense is to moderate the minds of the deeds and beliefs of our outstanding patriots, our ancestors who risked everything in order to establish a defensive country.

Mrs. Herbert Capps, as chairman of the vesper service, presided over the service. The program was opened with her address of welcome, followed by a salute to the flag led by Mrs. E. P. Brockhouse and a prayer, led by the D. A. R. regent, Mrs. J. Marshall Miller.

Give Patriotic Music
Mrs. Helen Brown Read of the Illinois Conservatory of Music, sang by request "America, The Beautiful" which was done in her usual artist's style. This lovely number was followed by a number sung by the American Legion quartet, members who include Howard Potter, Glen Skinner, Chester Colton and Maurice Peckham. This group sang "My Home Land" by Ole Speaks and responded to an encore with "Sweet Jeanie Lee." As a concluding number on the program the quartet gave "Marching Song For America."

Mrs. Clara Moore Nelms, violinist, played in accompaniment of the quartet. Both members of the Illinois Conservatory, the beautiful composition "Kol Nidrei," written by the noted violin composer, Bruch. This number was artistically done and was received with much favor by those in attendance. Mr. Harris also accompanied one of the quartet numbers while Mrs. Read played the other.

PARENTS OF SON
Born Sunday, February 22nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pearson, 230 East Superior Ave. a son.

STRESS PROGRAM THEME IN GIRLS' SOCIETY MEETS

I. C. Groups Have Extensive
Discussions in Sessions
Last Evening

Unusual interest was attached to the meetings of several of the girls' societies at Illinois College last evening as programs were given which denoted particular care in preparation. In one case a group was hostess to another as an annual custom and so had arranged special entertainment in their honor. The individual meetings follow:

Sigma Phi Epsilon
Sigma Phi Epsilon entertained the members of the freshmen girls' society, Alpha Eta Pi, Monday evening in an open meeting held at the David A. Smith house at seven-thirty o'clock. Miss Katherine Kamm, president, opened the period and extended a welcome to the guests. Business was transacted in the first half of the session, during which a report on the sale of last week was made by Miss Hazel Ruyke and it was decided to postpone the market until Saturday, March 7.

The program of which Miss Ruyke acted as chairman was carried out in the following order:

Original Essay, "Wishes"—Celia Breeding.

Talk, "Etiquette and Clothes for Week-End Party"—Ursula Brockhouse.

Talk, "Entertainment for Week-End Guests"—Barbara Dunlap.

Style Show during the number presentations.

Miss Elizabeth Acom acted as critic and after her report was made, the society song was sung and the group enjoyed a social hour. Tea and water were served to members and guests.

Gamma Delta

"The Modern Trend in Liberal Arts" was the general topic for an extensive program given by members of Gamma Delta society last evening. Different phases of this subject were taken up for the group assembled in the David A. Smith house and dealt with in the following manner:

Painting and Sculpture, essay—Thelma Beane.

Literature—Arah Prosser.

The Novel—Evelyn Nantz.

The Drama—Lora Treibert.

Music—Discussion by Helen Tendick; classical numbers, "Melody," by Charles G. Davies and "From Camp to the City" by Gardner—Helen Tendick.

Popular modern music—Thelma Beane, vocalist; Dorothy Tendick, violinist; Helen Tendick, pianist.

Modern Humor, extemporaneous—Frances McReynolds.

Mrs. Elma Savage gave the critic's report. Tea was served following the program hour. During the business session the following committee was named to plan for entertainment of Sigma Phi Epsilon society: Mrs. Elma Savage, chairman; Miss Lillian Deatherage, Miss Catherine Alexander and Miss Pauline Leford.

Class Enjoys Party in Home of Miss Shults

Miss Lois Shults was hostess last week to members of the Waverly Women's club, Franklin Home-makers Circle, Alexander Women's club, Arcadia Women's club, Chapin Women's club, Concord Domestic Art club, East Side Tuesday club, Jacksonville, Orleans Women's club, South Side Circle and Jacksonville Household Science club.

Education Worker Talks at Open House for I. C. Girls

Miss Catherine Johnston, representative of the Board of Christian Education in New York City, has been a guest on the Illinois College campus for the past few days and yesterday afternoon talked before a gathering of all the college girls in the Presidential residence at 310 Lockwood Place. Mrs. C. H. Rammekamp opened her home on this occasion and the co-ed students had the opportunity of meeting Miss Johnston and hearing her on the subject, "Vocations for Women."

At the chapel period Monday morning Miss Johnston was introduced to the entire student body. She has been entertained at Academy Hall during her stay here and has been the guest of Dean Clara B. Williams.

Visits Sisters Here

Misses Elizabeth and Nora Griffin of St. Louis have been guests at the homes of their sisters, Mrs. Charles Ackerman of South Main street and Miss Mary Griffin of Hardin avenue.

HER FILES HEALED AFTER 20 YEARS

Mrs. U. E. Mast, 817 South 7th St., Goshen, Ind., who was entirely healed of Piles and other Rectal Troubles after suffering 20 years, urges all sufferers to write The Thornton & Minor Clinic, Suite 727, 926 McGee St., Kansas City, Mo., for a new free copyrighted book which tells all about hemorrhoids (piles), fistula and other forms of rectal diseases and which fully explains a safe, sure, mild treatment that has restored more than 40,000 afflicted people to renewed health. There is no cost or obligation. (Adv.)

Surprise Given For Mrs. O. K. Taylor

The home of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Taylor, 1338 South Main street was the scene of a pleasant surprise last night, the occasion of Mrs. Taylor's birthday anniversary. The event had been planned by a few of her most intimate friends and came entirely unexpectedly as Mrs. Taylor has been in ill health for some time. She was the recipient of many useful gifts, among them a fox choker, presented by Mr. Taylor.

The guests were entertained by several numbers on the violin given by Peter Dederger, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Coover Hostess To F. E. O. Members

Mrs. Percy V. Coover, 107 Diamond Court, was at home yesterday afternoon to members of F. E. O. Chapter of F. E. O. who assembled at 7:30 o'clock for their regular meeting. Miss Jennie Jenks, president of the chapter took charge of the period.

Miss Stella Gilbert gave the afternoon program on the subject of "Women of Washington's Period."

Mrs. Rowe Is Club Hostess, Program Leader

Mrs. F. H. Rowe, 1152 West State street, entertained members of the Monday Conversation club yesterday afternoon, the meeting opening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Rowe presented the program on the subject of "Tendencies of Modern Art."

Light refreshments were served the guests during the social hour.

Chinese Topic For College Hill Club

College Hill club met yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. O. Bussey at 1195 West State street. The program was given at three o'clock by Mrs. W. T. Harmon who took as her subject, "China and Mei Lan-Fang and Chinese Drama."

During the social period in order following the program Mrs. Bussey served a luncheon course in keeping with the theme of Washington's birthday.

Phi Nus Complete Program For Open Meet Tonight

Society programs typical of 1877 and 1931 will be offered by members of Phi Nu society of MacMurray College this evening as they receive at their open meeting, an event which comes as quite an innovation in the period of the more immediate past. A called meeting yesterday afternoon brought about the completion of plans for this gathering which will tonight include townspeople, students and faculty all of whom will assemble in the social room at seven-thirty o'clock.

The period will open with the old fashioned idea or that of 1877 being used for program entertainment. The numbers will be given as follows:

Prayer—Fredricka Valen, chairman.

Welcome—Juanita Jordan, president.

Piano solo, "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven—Bernice Wiley.

Reading, "Patterns" by Amy Lowell—Dorothy Bernice Graham.

The second division, or the modern one, takes the following order:

Piano solo, "Violetta" by Soror—Annabelle Moore.

Original essay, "Modern Scepticism"—Florence Whitney.

Piano solo, "The Sphinx" by Jewell Scott—Marjorie Butler.

One act play, "Suppressed Desires"—With a cast of Lucy Jones, Helen Proctor and Karleen Hast.

Social and Club Events

Garden Program Planned For County Club Meet

A garden program, marked by the presence of two experts in this field, has been arranged for the luncheon meeting to be given Thursday, February 26th by the executive board of the Morgan County Federation of Women's clubs. Presidents of all the clubs in the county will be guests on this occasion and will meet for an interesting period with members of the board.

Mrs. Ida Alkire of Greenville, district club chairman on gardens, and Harold G. Auld of Heintz & Sons, Florists, Jacksonville have been engaged as the two speakers for the day. A board meeting is called for ten-thirty Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. O. G. Dinwiddie of this city. At eleven Mr. Auld will address the entire gathering on some phase of garden or flower study and a luncheon will follow during the noon hour. Mrs. Alkire will take the floor at two-thirty o'clock, speaking to the group along lines pertinent to the general garden theme of the hour.

Clubs in the county who will send their presidents to the meeting are:

Jacksonville Women's club, Waverly Women's club, Franklin Home-makers Circle, Alexander Women's club, Arcadia Women's club, Chapin Women's club, Concord Domestic Art club, East Side Tuesday club, Jacksonville, Orleans Women's club, South Side Circle and Jacksonville Household Science club.

USUAL METHOD OF ROASTING COFFEE MAKES FLAVOR VARY

But Controlled Roasting, Patented by Hills Bros., Prevents Variation

The elusive flavor of coffee is completely captured by a roasting process invented and used exclusively by Hills Bros.

This process roasts a few pounds at a time instead of in bulk. A constant stream of expertly blended coffee is introduced into the roaster in automatically measured lots, and passes through in a steady flow, roasting a little at a time. The speed of operation and temperature remain the same with the result that Hills Bros. Coffee is always uniform.

The common bulk method of roasting cannot develop the uniform flavor that Hills Bros. patented, continuous process develops. For this reason, no other coffee has the same wonderful flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee.

Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee in the vacuum can which keeps it fresh always. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is taken from this can and kept out. Coffee packed in ordinary cans, even if air-tight, does not stay fresh. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can.

HUNDRED ATTEND PYTHIAN CHURCH SERVICE SUNDAY

The man who does not love his brother man is a "dead one," according to Rev. T. Harley Marsh, who delivered the annual sermon at First Baptist church Sunday morning for the local Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters. More than a hun-dreced members of the church were in attendance.

Rev. Marsh had as his topic "The Acid Test," and took his text from I John 3:14, "He that loveth not his brother abideth in death." The speaker said that the correct translation of the final phrase of the text is "condemned dead." In other words the person who holds no love in his heart for his fellow man has never lived; he is dead, but has not yet been buried.

There are many standards by which men are measured, but in history every age has come to be measured by the amount of love shown for others in its duration. Rev. Marsh referred to the Dark Ages, and said they were dark because no man loved his brother. It was in that period that robber castles flourished along the Rhine, being built at narrow points on high bluffs overlooking the river. The lords who dwelt there levied toll on every passing boat.

The speaker also told of sailing along the Spanish coast, watching the cliffs and the towns nesting at their base. He inquired concerning one village from an Englishman who stood beside him at the steamer rail. He was informed that it was Tarifa, the town from which we derive the word tariff. In the medieval ages the people of this town levied tribute from ships that stranded on the reefs near it. Thus the age became noted, because every man's hand was against his brother.

Echoes of the Dark Ages
According to the Scripture, he who does not love his brother man might as well not live, Rev. Marsh said. The spirit which actuated men of the dark ages still exists. He illustrated this by went around and picked the big berries in early strawberry season. She went around and picked the big berries off the tops of the boxes and put them in a box for herself. When this spirit actuates people, the desire to get what they want regardless of the other ellow, they are not maintaining brotherly love.

The text may be applied in business, the speaker said. It used to be that the "public be damned" theory prevailed, under which men bowed down and for which they sacrificed the finer feelings of brotherhood. It is not right for any man to pay as little as possible and expect more for his money than he is willing to pay for. Neither is it right for a man to work as little as possible and expect more than his labor is worth.

MISS DAWSON GIVEN WRITEUP IN YEAR BOOK

The annual year book of the Gem City Business college for 1930-31 lists Miss Louise Dawson as a member of its faculty. She teaches there during the summer and is considering returning again this year for the fourth consecutive summer.

A photo of Miss Dawson appears in the book together with a write-up which says in part:
"Miss Louise Dawson attended the Gem City Business college in the fall and winter of 1922-23. She took the full combination course and made very fine grades."
When Miss Dawson completed our course, she accepted a place as head of the Commercial department of the Elkhart Community High school, Elkhart, Indiana. For the past five years she has been head of the Commercial department of the Winchester High school, where she has been very successful.

This past summer Miss Dawson taught in our summer school. When she came to Quincy she brought six of her high school students with her to take the advanced work in our school. They were all very fine girls and made a success of the work. Our Placement department sent some of these girls to very satisfactory positions in Springfield, Ill. Miss Erma French and Miss Maxine Cox were employed in the Department of Purchases of the State of Illinois. Miss Coe's sister, Miss Lucy, attended our school in the summer of 1923, and was placed by us as stenographer at the University of Illinois about two years ago, where she is still located. Misses Iola Crabtree and Emeline Smith are also working in the state house, and Miss June Lettice is employed in the office of the state museum.

Miss Lauretta Tankersley was placed in the branch office of Sears Roebuck and company of Springfield.
Lois Mitchell '30 who attended Gem City last summer is now employed at the Soldiers and Sailors Home at Quincy, where Mary Jameson '30, who also went to Gem City last summer is now bookkeeper in Watt's Dry Goods store.

NEWS NOTES

Principal Mellon has received a letter from Coach Burns of I. S. D. expressing appreciation for the courteous treatment extended to his basketball players in the recent tournament.

Supt. Homer Dahman of Arcanum schools visited with Principal and Mrs. Mellon last Saturday.

Julia Edmondson was hostess to several of her schoolmates over the week end.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the Edmondson country home were Jean Mann and Louise Leiby. Marie Puma was invited but couldn't accept.

Mr. and Mrs. Mellon entertained the Sunday school board of the Methodist church Thursday evening. Mr. Mellon acted as leader of this study class, and following the lesson, devotional refreshments were served.

Frances L. Clark is recovering from an operation for appendicitis in Our Saviour's hospital. We unite in wishing her a speedy return to Win-Co-Hi.

Harriet Danford will give a reading, "Jennie Entertains Sister's Beau" at the monthly meeting of the Community club at Mrs. Mason Rowe's on Friday afternoon.

Jonathan Boos, '30, who visited at home between semesters has transferred from the University of Illinois to the Onango Military academy, where Warren Woodall, a former Win-Co-Hi student is also enrolled.

Harriet Danford will enter the declamatory contest at MacMurray college on March 7.

Mr. Corrie who split open the forefinger of his right hand a week ago, has been suffering a great deal from his injury, although he has been at school every day. Coach Petefish, not to be outdone by the Ag teacher, received a severe cut in the palm of his left hand. He was working in the chemistry laboratory, trying to force a test tube thru a cork when the glass slipped and entered his hand, severing an artery. The quite serious at first, the wound is healing nicely now.

JUNIOR ENGLISH NOTES

Again, as for several years past, the Junior English classes are indebted to John Leib for an exhibit of pictures of eminent Americans, most of whom have become famous in the literary world. These pictures have been on exhibition all week in Mrs. Haskell's room and day by day we have been getting familiar with their likenesses. Next Monday a recognition test on these writers and statesmen will be given. This study of the pictures of our great literary artists always comes during the week of Washington's birthday.

ADVERTISING SLIDES

Principal Mellon has recently secured several lantern slides to be used for advertising the affairs given by Win-Co-Hi. These slides are appropriately decorated in colors for advertising football, basketball, dramatic productions and special affairs. Patrons of the Lyric will have the opportunity soon of seeing this newest method for putting Win-Co-Hi activities before the public.

STUDENTS ABSENT

Some of the students absent this week on account of mumps and other sicknesses are Charlotte Clark, Dorothy Andell, Virginia Pittman, Vernon Kream, Herman Flynn, Anna Summer, Howard Boes, Mabel Summers, John Smith, Forest Newman, Jean Patrick and Eileen Wright.

Calendar

Feb. 27—Jerseyville, there.
Feb. 27—End of 4th six weeks.
Feb. 28—Roodhouse, here.
Mar. 3—Debate with J. H. S.
Mar. 4-5-6-7—District tournament.
Mar. 13—Sectional tournament.
Mar. 27—Central Teachers' meeting.

SHORT PASSES

Two of 'em—and we were scalped this time instead of soaping.
Oh, well that's better than being scalped.

At Roodhouse Saturday—a football game and wrestling match!

The score at the first quarter was 14-0 for Roodhouse—it looked as if it might be first degree murder—but we pulled—a little.

The gang must have had greased hands—or the ball was greased. Really was pathetic.

That's three lost—we still have a chance—all we need is a little more "win" and "vigor".

Don't quit yelling when we're behind, gang—that's when the boys need encouragement.

We yell and yell as long as we lead—or are tied, but when we lose a couple of points, there's the time to yell louder.

Encouragement helps in anything—have you done your bit?

We have a good rep on "sportsmanship"—keep it up.

Let's not be guilty of raising either the referee or the opponents.

No matter what you think, keep your "gaber" closed.

A snappy forward is one called "Perk". He like to play, but hates to work.

Our "mumpy" forward—Ernie Hart. Can always be called on to do his part.

Bill Carlton plays guard—and plays it well.

But of his secret capers, we dare not tell.

MISS WHITMER ENTERTAINS FACULTY

Last Friday, all the teachers found valentines in their respective mail boxes in the shape of very clever invitations from Miss Whitmer, inviting them to a party on Wednesday evening, February 18 at 7:30 at the residence of Miss Caroline McLaughlin. The invitations were issued for a Special Tour to Florida and were illustrated by comics of the guests showing them enjoying in regular Florida past times.

The event proved to be fully as attractive as the invitations promised. The guests wore costumes appropriate to the Florida climate and enjoyed a most unique and novel entertainment. They gambled on the ocean beach and ate sea food out of the shells.

Miss Whitmer displayed a very interesting collection of souvenirs which she gathered on her trip to Florida last summer. The exhibit consisted of sea shells, corals, snapshots, post cards and pieces of marble like that used in the construction of Bok's Sinking Town. Altogether the evening was one long to be remembered.

PIANO FOR GYM

A piano for the gymnasium has recently been added to our school equipment by the board of education.

Ever since the building was built we have had a fine Solmer grand piano for the auditorium due to the generosity of the music department of the Woman's club. However, when a piano was needed in the gymnasium it has been necessary to rent one for the occasion, and has cost about $15.00 to move a piano in and out. Thus the need for an instrument in the gymnasium is quite apparent.

The board of education received fifteen dollars from the piano fund of the grade school for their exhibition last week, and it is the agreement that the grade school will be exempt from piano rent in the future. The Alumni association has agreed to pay the dollars a month when it uses the piano, so the board did not have to make a big investment for this useful addition to our facilities.

PROHIBITION—YES OR NO

The American History class had current events on prohibition and the Wickersham commission report Thursday of last week. We discussed the question thoroughly and then voted on it.

The question as it was to be voted on was whether the 18th amendment should be enforced, modified, or repealed.

Out of the eighteen members of the class present, fourteen voted for enforcement, four for modification and none for the repeal.

Miss Preston promised to keep the personal views on the question private, so we don't know who of the seniors is not quite satisfied with the laws of our government.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Word has been received that Winchester drew Jacksonville high for its first game in the district tournament to be held on the evenings of March 4, 5, 6, and 7. All tournament games are to be played on the Illinois School for the Deaf court with Wilbur Layman, Illinois Courier, sports editor, and John Henry, coach of the Johns Hill Junior High school basketball team of Decatur, as officials.

Other teams entered are Jacksonville, I. S. D., Ashland, Waverly, New Berlin, Franklin, Palmyra, Bluffs, Pleasant Plains, Meredosia, Modesto, and Chapin.

COLONIAL BED

Mr. Pullman, teacher of the Manual Training class, has been working the past week on a colonial four-poster bed for Mr. Mellon who is having it made to match a chest of drawers that has been handed down to him through several generations. The bed is made out of cherry and mahogany wood and is a very attractive piece of furniture.

THE FREE PRESS

According to a custom established during the first year of the Free Press, the classes will take turns publishing the Free Press during the month of March.

MANY BOYS TAKE PART IN ANNUAL JUDGING CONTEST

The annual corn, small grain, and poultry judging contest of section nine was held at Win-Co-Hi Friday, February 13. About two hundred twenty-five people took part in the activities, for each of seventeen high schools sent twelve students and their instructor. Two towns, Chapin and Divernon, were unable to be represented.

It was a day of unusual excitement at Win-Co-Hi for we are not accustomed to having so many strange visitors around. Quite often we would find students casting glances out the classroom doors to be sure they were not missing any excitement caused by the numerous visitors.

The boys arrived early and were ready to start work about as soon as our regular classes did. The judging was carried on in the school gymnasium, and this took up the entire forenoon. Many of the boys toured our little city and became well acquainted with it during the noon hour, meantime snatching a lunch of sandwiches, pie, soda pop and candy, served in the Ag. room by the Win-Co-Hi Future Farmers. The contest was a short session in the afternoon in the high school auditorium where the prizes were awarded by Chairman Corrie.

The school winning the highest number of points was Palmyra, and they were presented with a beautiful silver cup—the gift of the Win-Co-Hi chapter of Future Farmers.

Winners were as follows:

The totals of this contest will be added to the totals of the spring livestock judging contest held at Springfield to determine the champions of section nine.

Visitors other than students who were present were: A. P. Crowell, Smith, Beardstown; Floyd Wroughton, Girard; J. H. Loomis, Jacksonville; R. R. Morrison, Ball Township; H. S. (Springfield); Ewell E. Green, Jerseyville; L. B. Kimmel, Mt. Sterling; S. R. Foster, Palmyra; P. W. Proctor, Pittsfield; R. M. Tomlin, Springfield; test E. Knight, Tallula; E. G. Potter, Virden; N. C. Smith, Waverly; H. B. Corrie, Winchester. K. E. Stark, Greenfield was unable to attend but sent his team. George H. Reid of Carlinville was represented by his wife, Mrs. G. H. Reid. Mr. Damish, Assistant State Supervisor of Vocational Agriculture was also present and spoke very highly of Mr. Corrie's management of this contest.

Win-Co-Hi is proud to have been the scene of such an activity and we hope that it may again be chosen for this event. It is such affairs as these which break the monotony of regular school life and make our high school days most memorable in the future.

AG. BOYS GUESTS AT LYRIC THEATER PARTY

On Tuesday, through the courtesy of B. F. Walker, manager of the Winchester Implement company, H. B. Corrie with his Ag. boys attended the Lyric and saw a play depicting the history and development of harvesting machinery. This event was in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of Cyrus McCormick's invention of the reaper, a relic of which was exhibited by the Winchester Implement company and proved very interesting to our agriculture boys.

WORDS FROM THE STEARNS

Friends of this community of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Stearns will be gratified to hear of their continued good luck in the East. Mr. Stearns is pursuing his studies at Harvard university working toward his doctor's degree. This year he has been assisting with the teaching of two courses and has received a high rating in the university. He has recently been offered a very fine summer position at the Massachusetts Agriculture college at Amherst. Mrs. Stearns is teaching for the second year in a girls' private school at Bedford, a suburb of Boston, and is also studying at Radcliff. Win-Co-Hi rejoices to hear of their success and sends greetings to these friends and former faculty member.

ANNUAL MEETING GREENE COUNTY LOAN GROUP HELD

Roodhouse, Feb. 23.—The annual meeting of shareholders of the People's Building & Loan Association of Roodhouse was held in the office of Dr. N. J. Bucklin and three returning directors were re-elected for a term of three years each as follows: Attorney A. B. Johnson, Dr. N. J. Bucklin and H. C. Worcester.

The holdover directors of this association, completing the board, are Clyde Hopkins, Dr. O. L. Edwards, Albert Todd, Frank H. Sawyer, Dr. E. Close and H. M. Battershell. The board of directors met immediately after adjournment of the shareholders, and organized by re-electing the following officers:

President—Dr. J. E. Close.
Vice President—Attorney A. B. Johnson.

Secretary—H. M. Battershell.
Treasurer—Gilbert Todd.

The annual statement of August 1, 1930 was presented at the shareholders meeting, the report showing a splendid first year's business. The report has been audited and O. K. by the state department, and the directors are proud of the results obtained in the initial year's business, which is of course equally gratifying to the shareholders. Assets of the association at the close of the first year's business on August 1st amounted to $6,327.50, materially increased since that time.

At this meeting it was ordered that the third series of stock be closed, and the fourth series opened, shares in which are now available from the secretary, H. M. Battershell. As reported by State Auditor Oscar Nelson, the 942 building and loan associations of the state have proved a

Chandlerville

Chandlerville, Feb. 23.—Members of the C.S.C. will give a minstrel show on Thursday evening, Feb. 26, at the gymnasium. Twenty members of the group will appear in blackface makeup in a program of songs, readings and specialties. Miss Clyde Carr will act as interlocutress, with Mrs. Chalmers Armstrong and Mrs. W. A. McNeill as leading women. Solo numbers will be sung by Miss Annette Morse and Miss Elsie Cherry.

Debuting ability will be shown by Mrs. Herman Engelbach, Mrs. Charles Cherry, Mrs. William Mullin, Mrs. Roy Sours, Mrs. Rufus Murphy, Miss Lela Dyson, Miss Winona Armstrong, Miss Katherine Wahlfeldt, Mrs. Morris Anant, Miss Mary Louise Dorr, and others. Miss Mae Ainsworth is in charge of the production.

The high school freshman class will entertain on Saturday evening at a school party in the gymnasium. Nathan Gerald, class adviser and head of committee plans, is ardently supported by his loyal cohorts of first year pupils.

Under the auspices of the student council an original playlet, "The Crystal Gazer," will be given at the closing assembly hour on Friday by six members of the Freshman class. "Crocodile Island," an operetta, is being rehearsed for early production by members of the high school chorus directed by Miss Josephine Stout.

Miss Alice Parks, formerly of the high school faculty, is wintering in Florida. Mrs. H. A. Clegg spent Tuesday in Springfield.

Mrs. H. Engelbach was a visitor in Springfield Tuesday.

The Chandlerville Woman's club was entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Morse. The evening's study took up the history of series of pioneer studies. Mrs. George Leeper opened the program with a keen review of Pioneering in California. Her unique pictures of the gold rush days kept her audience's interest alert. Mrs. Jacob Anant continued with a sympathetic and artistically told story of El Camino Real and its Franciscan Missions. Pictures illustrated her talk.

Miss Fae Lucas arrived on Saturday for a week end visit and returned to Springfield Monday.

Miss Katherine Mae Wahlfeldt and Miss Mary Louise Dorr were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Camp of Bath on Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. W. D. Leeper returned from Springfield Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. Elble was a Saturday caller in Virginia.

Mrs. A. T. Lucas and son, Allen T., who have spent winter in Florida, returned on Wednesday morning from Atlanta, Ga., where they were held for the past week by Mr. Lucas' illness. Mr. Lucas will return later when more fully recovered from an attack of flu.

Miss Clyde Carr followed with a request reading, "My Grandmother's Patchwork," accompanied by Miss Mae Ainsworth. The program closed with Mrs. William B. Shaw's appreciation of "The Romance of the Quilt."

A short informal exhibit of old quilts followed the program with stories of their patterns and meanings. Roll call responses for the meeting gave suggestions from an old audience. Mrs. Ora Shankland spoke Thursday and Friday in Springfield.

Mrs. Kate Hermann returned Sunday from her southern tour of Florida and Cuba.

The Real Facts Concerning Construction of Sewage Disposal Plants in Jacksonville

There seems to be a misunderstanding on the part of some people touching the construction of the Sewage Disposal Plants in this city.

At the May Term, 1927, of the Circuit Court of this County, there was an injunction suit pending, brought by owners of real estate along Mauvaisterre Creek to restrain the City of Jacksonville from emptying its sewage into Mauvaisterre Creek until the same had been treated. A decree was entered in that case which restrained the City of Jacksonville from emptying sewage into Mauvaisterre Creek until the same had been treated.

The writ of injunction was served upon the Mayor of the City about the 22nd day of June, 1927. The writ of injunction thus served is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

THE INJUNCTION

STATE OF ILLINOIS, } ss. In the Circuit Court Thereof,
County of Morgan. } to the May Term, A. D. 1927.

Richard Leake, Charles B. Joy,
Thurlow H. Pratt, et al.,
Complainants,
vs.
City of Jacksonville,
Defendant.

WRIT OF INJUNCTION.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS,
To the City of Jacksonville, a Corporation, GREETING:

You, the said Defendant, City of Jacksonville, a Municipal Corporation, and each of your clerks, agents, servants, employees and Board of Local Improvement, are also hereby commanded, enjoined and restrained from continuing to discharge or causing or permitting to be discharged, by means of its sewer system or drain pipes, any filthy, contaminating or polluting matter or polluting waters, from water closets, garbage drains or any other polluting substances or any sanitary sewage, into Mauvaisterre Creek; and also from discharging or causing or permitting to be discharged by means of its sewer system, or drain pipes, any filthy, contaminating matter or polluting waters from water closets, garbage drains or any other polluting sources, any sanitary sewage, on any property owned, controlled or under lease by said Defendant, the City of Jacksonville, or on the property of any other person or persons, at any point near to the said Mauvaisterre Creek, or its tributaries, where the same would flow naturally into the said Mauvaisterre Creek, until the same shall have first been treated by means of some treating or disposal method or process so that the same will be rendered odorless and innocuous and so purified as not to contain filthy, foul, offensive, polluting or noxious substances, odors or waters, and thereby injure complainants named in this cause, wherein Richard Leake, et al., are Complainants and the City of Jacksonville is Defendant, and filed in the Office of the Circuit Clerk of Morgan County, Illinois, on the Chancery side thereof, and you the said City of Jacksonville, a Corporation and each of your clerks, agents, servants, employees and the Board of Local Improvement are hereby perpetually enjoined and restrained as aforesaid, and this order and injunction, you the said City of Jacksonville, a corporation, and each of your clerks, agents, servants, employees and the Board of Local Improvement are to obey, keep, observe and abide by, and in no wise omit so doing under the pains and penalties of the law.

You, the said Sheriff, are however hereby ordered by the Court to withhold or stay the execution of this writ until four years from date hereof.

WITNESS, Frank E. Wanamaker, Clerk of said Court, and the Judicial Seal thereof, at Jacksonville, this 22nd day of June, A. D. 1927.

F. E. WANAMAKER,
Clerk.

(SEAL)

TO THE SHERIFF OF MORGAN COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

By the terms of the above writ of injunction, the City of Jacksonville and its inhabitants were prohibited from emptying any sewage into Mauvaisterre Creek until the same was properly treated.

It will be noted that the force of the writ was stayed for four years. If no effort had been made to comply with this writ up to the 22nd day of June, 1931, all persons, especially the City Officials, would have been in contempt of Court for emptying sewage into Mauvaisterre Creek.

It then became the duty of the City Administration to formulate plans for the construction of proper sewers and sewage treatment plants.

The North Side plant was completed and has been in operation for more than a year, to the entire satisfaction of the State Health Department.

The South Side improvement was undertaken about three years ago; plans formulated and an appropriation received from the State at the session of the Legislature in 1929, and the work is substantially completed and the disposal plant in operation and approved by the Engineering Department of the State Board of Health.

The State paid substantially one-third of the cost of all of the South Side Improvement. Had not that appropriation been had from the State, the cost to the property holders would have been increased one-third of what it now is.

While the work was needed and important to the health of the community, it was done at the time it was done because the Circuit Court, by the injunction writ above set forth, compelled the City to do this work or to abandon our sewer system entirely, by June 22nd, 1931.

The contractor has until the first of May to complete all of the details of the work. The work is so nearly completed that it can be definitely said that there is sufficient funds to pay for the improvement and it can be definitely said that there will be no additional assessment, and that there will be a rebate, the exact amount of which cannot at this time be ascertained.

The above information was gathered, and is presented, and paid for, by citizens of Jacksonville

ROUTT AND I.S.D. MEET FOR CITY TITLE TONIGHT

Mickey Walker Will Clash With Johnny Risko In Bout In Miami, Florida, Tonight

By Alan Gould
Miami, Fla., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Under the same old palms, but with the breeze somewhat less balmy and the customers considerably less agitated, the 1931 outdoor heavyweight fight between Mickey Walker, the theoretical middleweight champion with big ambitions, and Johnny Risko, the Cleveland plowboy.

Walker, spotting Risko about 25 pounds, will enter the ring for the ten-round feature match a favorite to repeat the victory he scored over Johnny in Detroit. The odds, however, were no more than 6 to 5 in Mickey's favor, due to the determination Risko has manifested in his training, as well as his habit of springing.

As a warning of more serious affairs to come, W. L. (Young) Stribling, the pride of Georgia, and Max Schmeling, the young German holder of the world's heavyweight title, are slated to offer three rounds each of exhibition stuff as ballyhoo for their championship fight somewhere in the north this June.

These are the main attractions of the show promoted by "Pa" Stribling, energetic parent of the American heavyweight title challenger.

Unless the prediction of rain is fulfilled and upsets calculations, Promoter Stribling expects the Madison Square Garden arena, on the outskirts of Miami, to be coupled by about 30,000 customers, and the gate to reach $50,000, at prices of $2 to $4. The advance sale today, Stribling said, passed $20,000.

If the weather interferes, the show will be set back until Wednesday night.

Talk of interference by "New York interests" seeking to have the Walker-Risko card called off, was ridiculed today.

Meanwhile, reports persisted, despite emphatic denials by Frank J. Schumacher, the young German holder of the world's heavyweight title, are slated to offer three rounds each of

PURDUE BEATS MICHIGAN FIVE ANDY HIGH MAY QUIT BASEBALL

Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Purdue, one tied with Michigan for third place in the Western conference basketball standings by defeating the Wolverines here tonight, 30 to 21. The Boilermakers led from start to finish to avenge a setback suffered at Ann Arbor in the season's opener.

Johnny Wooden, Purdue forward, was high scorer with twelve points. Although closely guarded by Ray Altonhol, he slipped away for five free throws and tossed in two free throws.

Wies was the Michigan star, both offensively and defensively.

Purdue led at the half, 17 to 12.

Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Illinois outclassed Indiana to win, 39 to 25, in a Western conference basketball game here tonight, and avenge a previous defeat. The Illini offered a brilliant goal-shooting exhibition, each regular scoring six or more points.

Getting away to a fast start, Illinois led at the half, 24 to 13. The floor work of E. Kamp who repeatedly intercepted Indiana passes to convert them into field goals, baffled the Crimson team, and its play became ragged. Harper and Bennett of the Illinois five were removed after committing four personal fouls.

Dickey, Indiana center, was the only Hoosier able to solve the Illinois defense, and he led the scoring with twelve points.

FAVORITES WIN AT MIAMI BEACH

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Favorites had little difficulty advancing in opening play of the Pan-American tennis championships here today as they went through the first and second rounds of singles play.

George Lott, Chicago, leading the seeded stars, turned back Bud Pancoff, Cincinnati, 6-0, 6-1, in the second round after drawing a bye in the first.

John Van Ryn, East Orange, N. J., another seeded player, experienced little difficulty in disposing of Roy Casati, Cincinnati, 6-0, 6-2.

Gustavo Voller, Cuban champion, heading the list of foreign players, swept over David Fairfield, Miami, 6-0, 6-1.

A Family Council—of War

"Now look, Pop, he's weak with that left jab. Next time he comes in close, sock out with all you got!"—Maybe those weren't the exact words of advice that W. L. Stribling II (center) received from his very youthful second, W. L. Stribling III (left). But the advice must have been good, for W. L. Stribling I (right) is seen smiling approval. Young Stribling's father and son are the main rosters at the Miami Beach, Fla., training camp where he is getting ready for his forthcoming heavyweight title with Max Schmeling.

Redlegs And K. C. A. C. Clubs Agree To County Title Match

Including the whole of Morgan county in their scope, the State Hospital Redlegs and the Jacksonville Knights of Columbus yesterday agreed to play a series of basketball games for the county and city independent championship. The first game is to be played on March 1 at Liberty Hall but no plans were made for the second and third tilts, although the agreement reads for a three game series.

Almost in the same breath the independent teams voiced their desire for a league, composed of teams throughout the county which will play a regular schedule for the county championship.

Perfect harmony marked the meeting of the managers of the two teams, Ralph Teater of the Redlegs and Paul Cooney of the Cases. However, both managers assured their backers that the harmony existed only as a means to an end, the signing of an agreement for a city championship series.

Manager Cooney also stated that the local K. C. A. C. club would play the Springfield Cases here on Wednesday night for a Catholic church charity.

Outline Agreement
An outline of the agreement accepted by the managers of both teams shows that both managers agree to name their regular line-ups immediately, and that officials have been approved. John Dean and L. Edlin were accepted as officials. The agreement also states that if three games are necessary to decide the championship, both teams reserve the right to ask for a neutral court. The pact as drawn up, does not specifically state that the second game will be played at the State Hospital, nor the date for such a game, but it is highly probable the second tilt will be played there either one or two evenings after the first game.

One exception was made to the rule governing line-ups. Each team is permitted to use one player whose name is not on the eligibility list turned in yesterday. The manager's also are reported to have come to a gentleman's agreement not to take advantage of this arrangement.

The line-ups as announced by the managers were:

K. C. A. C.—Frisch, Schneider, Laumet, Henry, Magner, MacLean, Cowan, McGinnis and T. Wright.

State Hospital—Cade, Jernigan, Stanton, Goheen, H. Beane, Beely, Hunter, Brown and Bierman.

LEGION BASEBALL TEAMS CAN ENROLL FIFTEEN THIS YEAR

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 22.—The new American Legion Junior Baseball handbook, containing all of the 1931 official rules, is now off the press and ready for distribution. The Legion's Americanism Commission here has announced. The booklet is made up attractively with many pictures of 1930 players and teams. It gives general information about the program for the coming season, interpretation and suggestions for carrying out 1931 rules and reviews the 1930 play. The handbook may be had by writing to the National Americanism Commission, The American Legion, National Headquarters, 777 North Meridian street, Indianapolis, Ind.

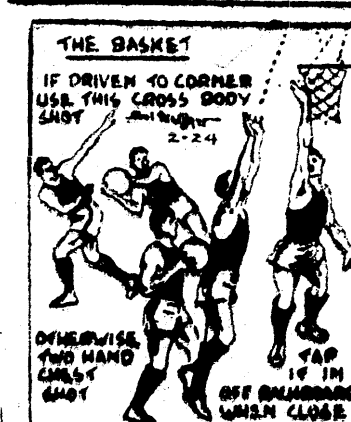

The rules, for the most part, are practically the same as they were in 1930. This year, for the first time, however, fifteen players may be enrolled on any team. In all previous years the total enrollment of teams has been restricted to not more than four players. The new program or other designation of persons, or organizations sponsoring teams, is permitted this year on the sleeve or back of the uniform shirt in letters not over two inches in size. Last year the name was not permitted except on the sleeve of the shirt.

Rule three has been changed to read: "Each player must be a bona fide resident of the community served by the post sponsoring the team in which he enrolls." Last year the rule said that each player must be a bona fide resident "of the community represented by the team in which he enrolls." A slight change has been made in Rule four to the effect that where a certified copy of the birth certificate is not available, "then a certified copy of the baptismal certificate or player's school record age" should be attached to the certificate of entry.

PITCHERS WARM UP
Tampa, Fla., Feb. 23.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds battersmen today started their warming up exercises preparatory to the coming campaign. The remainder of the squad will report the first of next week. William Rourke, chief scout of the Reds, was in charge temporarily. Manager Dan Howley being confined to his home at West Palm Beach with an infected toe.

SALVOLDI WRESTLES TONIGHT
San Francisco, Feb. 23.—(AP)—"Jumping" Joe Salvoldi, former Notre Dame fullback who is seeking new laurels as a professional heavyweight wrestler, will make his first appearance in California here tomorrow night when he faces Howard Canton. The fight is a two hour, finish match.

Three Ways of Caging Baskets

There are three ways of caging baskets. A team that has not mastered any of them lacks serious players capable of looping the ball through the ring under all sorts of conditions isn't hard to stop. All a defense has to do is to concentrate in breaking up the shots it can execute.

After all, scoring is the one fundamental that cannot be neglected. No matter how clever a cutting and blocking a five may be, if it can't hang up 2 points when opportunity presents itself it is doomed.

The most common shot is the two-handed chest shot. It may be used from almost any distance. The player leaps as he shoots in order to arch the ball high so it will drop straight through the ring. Another shot, and the hardest, is the cross-body shot from a corner, a two-handed shot gotten off quickly before the guarding opponent can block it. A much neglected shot is the tap in of a rebound, a hand slap of the descending ball just as it is leaving the basket after a miss. All these shots require a considerable amount of practice. Tomorrow—the one-hand push shot.

CARDS WOKOUT
Bradenton, Fla., Feb. 23.—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinal battersmen held their first workout of the season today. Bunting and fly-catching kept them busy. Manager Gabby Street spent much of his time on pitcher "Bugs" Dean.

Sylvester Johnson, Jim Lindsey, Jess Haines, Burleigh Grimes and Gus Mancuso were the only battersmen not on hand. Johnson and Lindsey are expected in a day or two. Haines and Grimes are training at Hot Springs. Mancuso has a leave of absence because of illness in his family.

WISCONSIN WINS FROM OHIO STATE

Madison, Wis., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Wisconsin's basketball team staved off a terrific Ohio State rally here tonight to defeat the Buckeyes 28 to 24.

Thrilling accuracy from the free-throw line was the margin of victory, with Wisconsin dropping 11 straight before missing. This enabled the Badgers to build up a 13 to 7 lead at the half on a pair of field goals, and climb to 22 to 9 before the Buckeyes staged their terrific rally.

Field goalless after the first minute of play when Russell and Mattison netted a pair from the field, Ohio State put on the steam in the last 11 minutes, and brought the count to 27 to 24. A Wisconsin stall in the last minute and Foster's free throw on Mattison's foul gave the Badgers victory.

GEORGE GODFREY SCORES KNOCKOUT

Laredo, Texas, Feb. 13.—(AP)—George Godfrey, Philadelphia negro, knocked out Dick Russell, carded as Ricardo Rosel, in the first round of their scheduled 20-round heavyweight fight here today.

Godfrey who weighed 244 pounds, began the fight with heavy punches to Russell's head and body. He soon had Russell groggy. A short, powerful right to the jaw ended the fight.

Russell, who weighed 240 pounds, was booked as the champion of Spain and a successful fighter in South America and Mexico. He failed to strike the negro with an effective blow.

ROBINS STEAL MARCH

Clearwater, Fla., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Brooklyn's first spring infield, although ordered to report until next week, stole the show from the battersmen at the Brooklyn Robins first practice of the year today.

While Elmer Wilbert Robinson looked on jubilantly, Del Bissonette, Presco Thompson, Glenn Wright and Wally Whitely went through a long workout that may bring on sore muscles tomorrow.

ATHLETICS WARM UP

Fort Myers, Fla., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Fourteen pitchers, three catchers and a rookie first baseman, aspirants for steady jobs with the two-time champion Philadelphia Athletics, went through a short workout at the A's spring training base here today. Captain Eddie Collins was in charge.

Coaches Of Teams Predict Victory For Other; Battle Of Baskets Is In Prospect

The battle of bankboards and basketballs will be on tonight. The city championship, for the first time in the history of the city, will be the stake. Routt and I. S. D. both boast strong teams this year, will be the contestants, both in the light and heavyweight divisions, and a virtual city championship will be at stake in the curtain raiser also.

Just which team is the strongest has caused much comment around the city. Tonight the teams will determine which can score the most points in 32 minutes of play. Both defeated the high school by large margins, and both teams have licked other strong teams in this district.

Name your own winner.

From all appearances a toss-up, both coaches feared last night that the other team would win. Said Coach Baptist:

"Few people realize how strong Routt is, but whether they are strong enough to defeat the Tigers, I don't know. Perhaps the Deaf will beat us, but we want to win."

Said Coach Burns: "Routt has a strong team and may beat the Tigers. Three of the Tiger regulars are not feeling well since their trip to Kansas, and that may hurt some."

SHILL A Toss up.

The statements of the coaches left the forecasts for victory in another toss-up. Apparently neither coach wishes to build a bridge to burn, and apparently each coach has a whole lot of fear of the other team. Probably each coach imparted his fears to the members of his squad last night, and the result is going to be that two keyed up quintets will dash out on the I. S. D. court at 8:15 p. m.

Calling on old man dope for a little assistance in picking a winner is like calling for help in the wide open sea. During the whole season's play, and there is only this week left until the tournament bubble bursts over the Tiger court, the Rockets have played only two teams played by the Tigers. One of them was Pekin, who won from Routt 33 to 23 early in the season, and who downed the Tigers in the first game of the year for the Tigers 20 to 17.

The other was Jacksonville High, who Routt dropped 16 to 4 during the Christmas holidays, and who the Tigers routed last Tuesday night 31 to 6. But the high school was playing a different type of game when they played Routt than they played against the Tigers, and that makes the dope almost valueless.

Records Compared

Looking over the season's records for the two teams, it is discovered that the Tigers have played 19 games and won 13 of them. They are leading the Illinois Valley conference and need only a victory over Pittsfield this Friday night to clinch the title the first year they are in the conference. The Tigers also have played in Wisconsin and Kansas, whereas Routt has confined its activities closer to the home port.

Routt's record is a little better; the Rockets have won 13 games in 18 starts, just one less than the Tigers have made. However, the Rockets have won their last eight consecutive games, a fact which will put the Irish on their metal more than ever tonight. Routt's last eight victories have been over Rockledge, St. Teresa of Decatur twice, Murrayville, Waverly, Petersburg, Quincy and Barry.

Compare Personnel.

And when it comes down to a comparison of personnel, old man dope still sticks his tongue in his cheek. Burns as being under the weather slightly. Big George has had a bad night yet this year, and is doubtful that he'll crave to have one tonight. Tonigan is another of the stars whom the Rockets will have to watch, for if that young sharp shooter is feeling his shots, he'll ring the hoop from almost anywhere, and especially from the difficult angles.

He is another of the trio reported to be slightly down after the Olathe trip. Dicenso, the petti Springfield lad, is Tonigan's rival, for Dicenso knocked off 12 points in his last game against Barry, shooting seven times from deep in the court and scoring on six of them. Pacotti, always a bad man around a basket, will play havoc with the Tigers if he isn't covered with a blanket, and Dicenso, center, is expected to give the Rockets the edge on all jump balls, and may be in for another of his good evenings, which have been coming up regularly lately. Clancy is far from the weakest player on the Routt squad, for his rambling tactics often bring him into the open for spot shots. His guarding is a big feature of the Rocket defense.

Speaking of guarding, Jean Mascarang, the smiling Tiger, probably has seen so much basketball that he knows just what to do in almost any situation. Mascarang is somewhat of a scoring threat, but is also one of the nicest working guards on the court in this section. He always plays with a half-mile on his face. Orris Franklin, Mascarang's running mate, is an other clever guard, but does not enter the scoring as often as Jean.

WIDOW WILL FIGHT EXTRADITION TO NEW YORK STATE

Officials Wish to Question Her About Activities of Husband, Frank Marco

Cleveland, O., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Yvonne Richmond, 39, widow of a 40-year-old widow, arrested for New York authorities who wish to question her about activities of her husband, Frank Marco, in the hope of clearing up his slaying, supposedly at the hands of racketeers, tonight declared she would fight extradition.

Arrested at the home of her father-in-law after returning from the funeral of her husband here, Mrs. Marco broke down under questioning at police headquarters and sobbed for half an hour.

Asked if she feared Marco's underworld enemies, the one-time wife of Harry Richmond, stage and screen actor, declined to answer. She retained an attorney to fight extradition, which New York police said they would seek on a charge of grand larceny involving $300.

The slender, blonde widow repeatedly asked that she be taken back to the kindly care of her mother-in-law, Mrs. J. M. Marco, to whom he fled last Wednesday, the day after her husband's bullet and knife riddled body was found on the waterfront in New York city.

She told detectives that she last saw Marco when he left the room in the Victoria hotel in New York at midnight Tuesday, supposedly to buy a newspaper. He telephoned a few minutes later that he would not be back for a couple of hours.

While she was waiting a man who said he was a policeman, phoned a description and asked if she could identify the man as her husband, "I did not want to hear more," she continued. "I hung up the receiver and fled to a friend's house. I did not believe the man when he said he was a policeman."

"The next morning I bought a newspaper and learned of my husband's murder. I was distracted with grief. Friends put me on the train for Cleveland last Wednesday and I arrived here Thursday. That's all I know about it."

AUTOMOBILE IS HIT BY TRAIN; THREE KILLED

Crash Occurs on Grade Crossing at Outskirts of Mattoon

Mattoon, Ill., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Two men were killed and youth of 16 was fatally injured today when their automobile was demolished by a fast Big Four passenger train at the outskirts of the railroad yards on the east side of town.

Walter Harrison and Homer Nottingham, brothers-in-law, were killed outright; Lowell Wines, 16, Nottingham's step son, died of his injuries shortly after the accident.

The crash occurred at a grade crossing adjacent to a sharp incline. Police believe that the driver became confused watching a switch engine in the railroad yards and failed to see the approaching train. They could not definitely determine who was driving.

The engine carried the car a considerable distance. Before shunting it, a mass of wreckage, off to one side.

A. S. Baker, of East St. Louis, engineer of the train, told police he did not see the car climbing the incline in time to stop his train.

Coroner F. S. Schilling said an inquest will be held into the deaths.

MRS. SCHROEDER AND DAGUE ARE ELECTROCUTED

At her request, the Rev. H. O. Teagarden, of Piedmont, O., their spiritual advisor, spent the last minutes with Dague, while the Rev. C. P. Lauer, priest chaplain, walked with her to the grim death chamber.

Both she and Dague went to their death apparently assured by religious consolation. In letters they wrote to Mr. Teagarden they said:

"We both know the blood of savior, Jesus, has cleansed us of all sin."

Both Write Stories

Mr. Teagarden said the pair had left wills which were in effect the stories of their lives, for they had no physical property. He said it was their wish that these documents be sold for publication, if need be, and the proceeds used to help support Dague's son and daughter, and Mrs. Schroeder's son, Donnie.

In Mrs. Teagarden's care, Dague's body tonight was on the way to West Virginia for burial beside that of his mother, Mrs. Schroeder's body likely will be sent to Beallsville, Ohio, tomorrow, there to rest also beside a mother's grave.

RECOVER STOLEN CAR IN SANGAMON

A 1930 Ford coach owned by the Suter Motor Company of Winchester and stolen from the public square in Jacksonville on the night of Feb. 19 has been recovered in Springfield under unusual circumstances. A Springfield resident returning from a trip in his own car found the Winchester Ford in his private garage, with all of the wheels missing.

Baffled at the strange car in his garage, the citizen notified Springfield police. A check of the license and motor numbers showed that the machine belonged at Winchester. The car will require a new set of wheels before it takes to the road again.

OFFICIALS START PROBE OF DEATHS OF TWO MORE MEN

Carl A. Lindstrom's Body Found to Contain Small Quantity of Poison

Los Angeles, Feb. 23.—(AP)—The deaths of two more men came under the scrutiny of official tonight after investigation of the death of Carl A. Lindstrom, wealthy retired lumberman, whose body recently was exhumed at Williams, Ariz., and found to contain poison.

The two dead men were Charles Carlson, husband of Mrs. Esther Carlson, 62, who with Mrs. Anna Erickson, was held on suspicion of poisoning Lindstrom, and a man whose name was withheld by authorities. He died about 15 years ago in Hemet, Calif. The name of the third man was drawn into the case after Mrs. Erickson, in a hospital suffering from poison, summoned Deputy District Attorney George Stahlman to her bedside.

Mrs. Carlson, held in the county jail, laughed at the idea her husband died of poison. She said hospital records would show he died of cancer. Investigation of circumstances surrounding Lindstrom's death was started by the existence of R. E. Lindstrom, Chicago meat packer and son of the dead man.

CHICAGO VOTERS TO CAST THEIR BALLOTS TODAY

ready for dispatching police or special watchers to precincts that were trouble. Fifty policemen will be on duty at the election commission headquarters, as well as 150 special watchers.

Lewis Takes Stump

Illinois Democratic Senator-elect James Hamilton Lewis, arrived today to lend his oratorical powers to the cause of Anton J. Cermak, the Democratic mayoralty candidate. Colonel Lewis said Chicago was the worst governed community in the country. He blamed it on the Republican city administrations, and urged Democrats to stay out of the Republican contest tomorrow.

The Republican candidates spent much of the day predicting they would be nominated. Mayor Thompson, however, in a discussion of waterways, threatened to go to Washington "in a few days." Steamboat whistles can be blowing in Chicago harbor from New Orleans in six months, he said, but "unless something is done with them up in Washington it will take two years." He said he expected to get twice as many votes as the other two candidates combined.

Albert said "if each voter will cast his or her ballot as he or she honestly sees the situation, if he or she remembers that Thompson controls in both the Lyle and Thompson camps, if he or she votes on the record and reputation of the three principal candidates, I know that my possibility of victory is greater than that of either Thompson or Lyle."

Lyle ignored Albert in his final speeches, but predicted he would win over Thompson by 150,000 votes. "In April I will be elected," he added, "and immediately I will appoint a civilian chief of police, notify the state troopers to run the gangsters out of Chicago, and I promise you to clean up this town of gangsters within ten days from the date of my election. They simply will not stay here when I go after them."

Although there are 1,340,566 registered voters in the city, John S. Ruch, chief clerk for the election commission, predicted from 700,000 to 750,000 ballots would be cast, due partly to the fact that Cermak has no organized opposition.

TO RECEIVE BIDS FOR CARRYING MAIL

Postmaster W. A. Fay has received notification from the post office department in Washington that it will receive sealed bids until March 24 for carrying the mails between Roodhouse and Jacksonville. The successful bidder will begin his work July 1, 1931, and the contract will be effective until June 30, 1935. A Roodhouse mail now holds a temporary contract for this work.

The bids will be submitted on a basis of carrying the mails six times a week, one way only. The carrier is not required to transport other than first class newspaper, special delivery and registered delivery parcels post mail. The distance between the towns is 23.80 miles.

Each proposal should be sent in a sealed envelope addressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, D. C., and superscribed 'Mail Between Roodhouse and Jacksonville, State of Illinois, Bulletin Advertisement.'"

ASHTON, IDAHO, FEB. 23.—(AP)—Roy Stover of McCall, Idaho, mended his string of seven gordon setters and fox hounds to victory in the annual American dog derby here today. He covered the 25 miles over an excellent track in one hour, 55 minutes, 42 seconds, a new course record.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER CO. PLANT BOMBED

Practically Every Window in Twine Mill Broken by the Blast

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(AP)—A powerful black powder bomb early today exploded at the twine mill of the Giant International Harvester Company works on the west side.

The bomb, police said, caused damage estimated at $2,000 and was heard over a wide area. Practically every window in the five-story twine mill was shattered, as well as windows in surrounding buildings.

The bomb brought to an even dozen the number exploded at industrial plants during the last few months. It was the most powerful bomb in the city's police said.

No one was in the twine mill at the time the bomb exploded, but occupants in nearby dwellings were aroused. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitch, in the International Harvester club house across the street from the mill, were thrown from their beds and showered with shattered glass.

Police said they believed the bomb had been thrown at the building. Included in the list of "industrial bombings" of the past several months have been the plants of the Canada Dry Ginger Ale Co. in suburban Maywood; the Reuben R. Donnelly Printing Co., a Sears-Roebuck Company warehouse, the Merchandise Mart and the Furniture Mart. Police have found no motive in any of the bombings.

REXROAT FUNERAL TO BE WEDNESDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Amanda C. Rexroat will be held at the Gillham Funeral Home at 2:30 o'clock, in charge of Dr. M. L. Pontius. Burial will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

She had been in failing health for about two years, but no one realized that the end was near.

Mrs. Rexroat was a life-long resident of Morgan county, coming to Jacksonville about twenty years ago. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong Cooper, pioneer residents of Concord community, and was born at Concord, October 3, 1853, being at the time of her death, 77 years four months and 18 days of age.

She was one of a family of eight children, all of whom preceded her in death, except one brother, James B. Cooper, who lives on the old homestead.

She was united in marriage to W. B. Rexroat, of Arcadia, December 23, 1874, who preceded her in death three years ago.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Helen Gaines of this city and Mrs. Anna Grimm of Los Angeles, Cal., and one son, W. Earl Rexroat, of Liberty. Two children preceded her in death.

She is also survived by three grand children, Miss Helen Gaines of Los Angeles, Cal.; Harold Gaines of Charleston, S. C.; and Alden Earl Rexroat of Liberty, and two great grandchildren, Wilma and Ruth Gaines of East St. Louis, several nieces and nephews and one aunt, Mrs. J. M. Purdy, 92 years old, of White Hall.

Mrs. Rexroat became a member of the Christian church many years ago. The remains are at the Gillham Funeral Home.

ADMIRAL DIES

Wiesbaden, Germany, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Former Admiral Eduard von Capelle, who succeeded Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz as German secretary of state for marine affairs in 1916 after the latter resigned on failing to induce the government to open ruthless and unrestricted submarine warfare against the allies, died here today.

ARREST SUSPECT

Champaign, Ill., Feb. 23.—(AP)—W. J. Curren of Chicago was arrested by Sergeant Clarence Roth, state highway policeman, at the request of Cairo police today. He was wanted on a charge of stealing two automobiles, one of which he was driving.

Ashton, Idaho, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Roy Stover of McCall, Idaho, mended his string of seven gordon setters and fox hounds to victory in the annual American dog derby here today. He covered the 25 miles over an excellent track in one hour, 55 minutes, 42 seconds, a new course record.

MAY SUBMIT DRY QUESTION TO A POPULAR VOTE

Senator Dill, Washington, Prohibitionist Offers the Compromise

Washington, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Resubmission of national prohibition to the people for a test was advanced today by Senator Dill of Washington, a Democratic prohibitionist, in a promise in the perplexing wet and dry dispute facing the party.

However, Dill joined with the almost solid front of Democrats in congress in support of the intention of Chairman Raskob to set in committee of the party on prohibition at the March 5 meeting of the Democratic national committee.

Dill spoke first of the national referendum in a New York speech Saturday night. Democrats of the anti-prohibition faction asked him what it today, looking upon it as a compromise solution.

"I state," said Dill, "that it will be entirely consistent with the principles of Democracy to resubmit the question of prohibition to the people in accordance with the terms of the constitution."

He said there were two ways of resubmission, first, a constitutional convention, second, the submission to the states by congress of a resolution for repeal of the eighteenth amendment. Senator Wagner, Democrat, New York, an opponent of national prohibition, was one of those regarding the proposal favorably.

"I suggest this," added Dill, "as a compromise—not as a remedy."

Meanwhile it became apparent from the growing sentiment at the capital that every influence will be brought upon Raskob to set aside an intention he may have had of seeking to commit the Democratic national committee on the prohibition issue when he comes here this week to prepare for the committee meeting.

There has been no definite expression of opinion as to whether he intended to bring up the wet and dry discussion but there have been many reports that he might.

ASSISTANT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL EXPLAINS REMARKS

Explanation Concerning Remarks About Italy Averts Trouble

Washington, Feb. 23.—(AP)—A public "explanation" by John Lord O'Brien, assistant attorney general, of certain remarks about Italy in a New York speech Saturday night appeared tonight in the New York Times.

The full text of O'Brien's remarks about Italy, constituting only a small part of his speech, was requested to the Ambassador De Martino of Italy for Chicago, who is in New York. Pending receipt of the text, Italian embassy officials declined to comment.

There appeared little likelihood, in view of O'Brien's explanation that he had intended to make no comment on Italy, but merely made the remark by way of contrast, that the matter would be taken up officially.

The ambassador recently received a formal apology of the American government to Premier Mussolini after Major General Smedley D. Butler of the marine corps in a speech told of an alleged incident which depicted the premier as a "hit-and-run" driver.

Oppose Ambassador

New York, Feb. 23.—(AP)—A delegation of Italian-Americans, led by a man prominent in the anti-fascist movement, planned to go to Washington tonight to lay grievances against the Italian ambassador before President Hoover.

The delegation, composed of civic and fraternal order leaders, announced they would ask the president to declare Ambassador Giacomo De Martino "persona non grata" because of his attitude toward the anti-fascist movement. They also alleged that De Martino had caused dissension and strife in Italian-American communities.

Giovanni Valentini, general manager of the newspaper Il Nuovo Mondo, said he had performed a crude laceration on the neck of the delegation leader, Charles Fana, and would be joined in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington by other delegates.

RAZOR SLIPS; BARBER MAY LOSE HIS JOB

Oklahoma City, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Another issue was thrust before the senate today with introduction of a resolution to prohibit the state board of affairs from requiring Charles H. Riggs, operator of the State Capitol Barber Shop, to surrender the shop.

Riggs has performed a crude laceration on the neck of the delegation leader, Charles Fana, and would be joined in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington by other delegates.

Today Riggs was notified by the board of affairs that his contract would be terminated and that another barber would be forthcoming in the near future.

JOLIET GUARDS OPEN FIRE ON FLEEING MEN of the guards spat out the death hall which dropped the fleeing men, the two automobiles waiting by the road sped away toward Chicago and guards who pursued them, firing, in two cars.

Warden J. M. Daly of the Arizona prison relieved the guard through whose post the fifteen prisoners made their escape. He was "inaction" and the guards were ordered to use a steel girder, taken from a construction job in the prison to aid them in climbing the wall.

Joliet, Ill., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Prison guards opened fire on two men who were escaping from the prison by prisoners to escape, early yesterday shot to death three Chicago convicts who scaled the wall of the old state penitentiary in a futile dash for liberty.

Aided by a powerful prison searchlight, the guards pelted outside the prison walls, with machine guns, their weapons, found the three men before they had a chance to reach two automobiles parked on a roadside near the prison, presumably by confederates.

The occupants of the cars, pursued by guards in two automobiles, drove rapidly toward Chicago, and escaped, apparently untouched by shots fired at them as they fled.

Joseph Korkiewicz, 31, and Julio Chleno, 39, both serving time for a confidence game, and Alvin J. Kilman, 34, a convicted robber, were the men killed. They were part of a kitchen detail of five convicts. Overpowering Frank Lambert, a lone guard, who was with them in the refectory house, they thrust him into a refrigerator and slammed the door, about 3 a.m.

Used Crude Ladder

Using large sticks taken from an adjoining bakery, and nails smuggled from the prison machine shop, the prisoners constructed a crude ladder which they carried across the prison yard to the southeast corner. Here they placed the ladder against a tool shed and barber shop and mounted to the roof, clamping a cable, also stolen from the machine shop, onto an abutment.

Korkiewicz, a ten-year man, was the first to climb down. The guards, in a restaurant across the street and in an automobile parked in a vacant lot nearby, waited. Chleno, who had "done time" in jail at Paterson, N. J., with them in the refectory house, and Flint, Mich., followed the leader. Still the guards watched their fire. The Kilman began his descent and the other two followed.

All Meet Death

Korkiewicz ran straight into one of the two ambulances and fell with a dozen shots in his body. Chleno leaped over his body and was caught by the fire, falling dead near his leader. Kilman, his hands still entwined about the cable, ran into the fire of the second ambush. He died and dropped 20 feet to the ground outside.

The other two of the five scrambled back inside to safety.

Inside the walls, which are 32 feet high, some 1,800 prisoners heard the shots and started to yell, but they quieted down several hours later, and prison officials said they expected no further trouble. Colonel Frank Whipple, state superintendent of prisons, was in charge, having taken the place of Warden Harry Hill, who is ill in a Chicago hospital.

Whispering of the plot reached Warden Hill three weeks ago, before his removal to the hospital, and extra guards were placed to meet the emergency. (Aerial view of Joliet penitentiary is shown on page five.)

SEVEN JURORS ARE SELECTED IN CASE AGAINST YOUTH

Virgil Kirkland is to be Tried for the Murder of Arlene Davis

Verapaloo, Ind. Feb. 23.—(AP)—Six middle-aged farmers and one young grocer's clerk were tentatively approved today as members of the jury to try Virgil Kirkland, young athlete, for the death of Arlene Daves, 19 year old girl.

The trial youth of 20, who escorted Miss Daves last fall to a drinking party at which she met death, watched closely the rapid selection of the men who will determine whether he had slain her by a criminal attack.

Attempting to speed the trial from its very first day, R. G. Esil, prosecuting attorney, requested one of the 20 allotted preliminary challenges, and excused five veniremen for cause.

Blame Bad Liquor

The defense emphasized its intention to blame bad liquor for the crime in which Kirkland was implicated with four other youths, not yet on trial. It excused one man for having a fixed opinion of the case.

Both sides believed that a jury could be completed and opening arguments started tomorrow before Judge Grant Crumacker, who took the case on a change of venue. The speed with which jurors were questioned and passed today was indicated by the fact that the start of the trial had to be delayed several hours so that the demand of Judge Crumacker for the original indictment, held at Crown Point, be brought before him.

The prosecution set the crowded courtroom buzzing with comment when it made no mention of the death penalty in its questioning of veniremen. Defense attorneys seized on this to indicate that prison term rather than execution was favored.

The defense asked each juror, "would you be prejudiced against Kirkland if it were known that he drank?" and refused to accept those who said they would.

Boys and girls from Gary, many of them professing to be acquaintances of Kirkland or the girl, packed the little courtroom. They maintained perfect order. Some of them brought lunches so as to hold their seats.

Four other defendants, held on indictments similar to Kirkland's remained in the county jail at Crown Point. They are Paul Barton, 21; Leon Stanford, 21; Henry Shirk, 24; and David Thompson, in whose home the party was held. Each has been granted a separate trial.

The state alleges it was Kirkland who first attacked the girl, who died shortly after the party Nov. 29. The prosecution charges that the other four also attacked Miss Daves, and that death from cerebral hemorrhage and shock resulted.

THE TRIVIES

The street car covered lots of ground. In fact it traveled all around Pretoria. The Times thought the city very nice. And when the car came to a stop, wee Clowny said, "I hate to hop off to the ground. I'd like to make this same street car ride twice."

"Not now," replied the Travel Man. "Some other day, perhaps, you can, but now we want to find a place to eat a bite of lunch. An open-air cafe is near. Let's try it while we're staying here." The Trivies were hungry, so they favored this fine lunch. About a half hour later they decided they would like to play around out in the open air. Said one, "Where can we go?" The Travel Man then scratched his head and, in a moment more, he said, "Just follow me. We'll visit at a good spot that I know."

They hiked along a narrow street and smiled at natives they would meet. Soon Coppy cried, "Oh, look ahead. We're coming to a park. I hope they have some swings, 'cause I would like to swing up to the sky." And then the Travel Man stopped short and to the bunch he said, "Hark!"

A real loud snorting filled the air and Scully cried, "Look over there. An elephant is calling us. I'll bet he's hungry, too." They ran to where the elephant was and he seemed mighty pleased, because the Trivies started feeding him, a kindly thing to do.

They'd purchased peanuts at a store, and now they got a mighty roar just watching Mister Elephant reach out and grab them quick. His limber trunk swung to and fro. How it could make the peanuts go. "Th way he grabs them," Clowny said, "I quite a clever trick."

(The elephant plays a mean trick on Clowny in the next story.)

CHICAGO GUNMAN KILLED IN WRECK

St. Louis, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Milton Godier, 26, gunman of the "Cuckoo" gang, was killed early today when his car, traveling at 70 miles an hour in his efforts to escape pursuit by two police automobiles, crashed into a building. Godier's car skidded on the wet pavement as he attempted to turn a corner.

Police, who began the chase when the gangster sped through a street against the traffic signal, found Godier's body a foot from the car where it had been hurled by the impact. A revolver was grasped in his right hand.

BRINGS SUIT ON INSURANCE POLICY

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Suit for $20,000 damages was filed today in federal district court by Clara Clavin, widow of Collie Clavin, first mayor of Mt. Olive, who was killed March 9, 1930 when a riot gun he was cleaning was accidentally discharged. The suit was transferred from the circuit court of Macoupin county, on petition of the Union Indemnity company, defendant.

Mr. Clavin, who was cashier of the First National Bank, Mt. Olive, had an insurance policy for $15,000, but his widow claims the sum has not been paid.

THE CRIME IN THE DUTCH GARDEN

SYNOPSIS: Ted Green, Annabelle Quindling's chauffeur, is found murdered in a Dutch garden. Dr. Netherthorn, previously blamed by Superintendent Richmond for the murder in a Dutch garden, is the man who has been charged with the murder. The man who has been charged with the murder is the man who has been charged with the murder.

"Then Bill left me," the letter continued. "I did not tell him that I was expecting Dick to come along. After I waited a few minutes, I thought I had better see if Aunt Annabelle was ready to go in. You know what I found. Despite her hardness, I was fond of my aunt and it was terrible to discover what had happened to her, although I honestly thought it must have been an accident."

"Dick is not a liar, but he did deny that it was his car at the bottom of the garden. That was wrong. It was his car and he was anxious to put the truth right."

"Dick must have reached the bottom of the garden shortly after I left it, and then, as I did not come, he went toward the house. He was coming through the Dutch garden and he actually saw Aunt Annabelle lying on the ground with the broken figure beside her. Then, hearing voices, he slipped into a covered place and could hear me tell Evelyn and the others what I had found. His first impulse was to join us—but how could he explain his being there? Finally he decided it would be best to get away. So Green saw a car when he crossed the link and it was gone when he came back. No doubt he made the most of it to divert suspicion from himself."

"When I heard a car had been seen, I knew it must have been him, I was horribly frightened, although I would not allow myself to suspect him. Bill was splendid all the time, refusing to say anything that would make things worse for me, even though his refusal made them drag him into it. After the funeral Dick and I decided to marry as soon as possible. I telephoned him about it, but he advised us to wait until things were clearer. I felt happier than in many days."

"I was at the Netherthorns' when she 'phoned," said Jimmie. "I noticed after that that she seemed more cheerful, but I don't guess the exact reason."

"I observed it too," said Richard. "I put it down to the effect of the will. She stood to get a tidy fortune."

"She refers to that. Apparently she had left home before it was discovered. She says—"

"I think there is little doubt Aunt Annabelle destroyed the will. If Mr. Morgan told her the conditions would not be binding, she would have attained her end some other way, but Green's wicked act prevented her doing so."

"I want you to do what you can to prevent people thinking wrongly about Bill Netherthorn. I do not mind what is said about myself."

"Give my love to Nancy and Donald, and thank you, Mr. Haswell, for all you did. This long letter has been written a bit at a time. So now I can sign myself

"Sincerely yours,"

"Marjorie Stirling."

"So that's that," observed Richmond as Jimmie concluded. "It clears up a good deal. However, the talk about Netherthorn can't amount to much now that we have the guilty party."

"That," said Jimmie quietly, "is where you are wrong."

"Wrong, am I? You suggest we can help Netherthorn? How is it to be done?"

"Where you are wrong," Jimmie continued, "is in saying you have the guilty party and the truth is known. Your view is that Green killed Miss Quindling and that his confession settles the matter beyond doubt."

"Certainly, I suspected him from the first, and his confession only confirms what we already knew."

"The letter I have just read you is only part, the much less important part, of my reason for coming to see you this morning. What I have also to tell you is this—Edward Green did not kill Miss Quindling, and he did not confess. The confession is a forgery and he himself is the victim of attempted murder."

MATH STUDENTS TO PRESENT D. P. ASSEMBLY TODAY

Mathematics students, drawn from Miss Elizabeth Hackman's classes at the David Prince school, will take charge this morning in assembly period and present a program relative to the work of that department.

The entertainment will open with a piano solo given by Evelyn Suter, section 6. The boys and girls will then be ready to present a group of number stories which include tales of the world's attempts to count, experiments in writing numbers and difficulties met in performing everyday computations.

The stories are to be told by Alice Gaither, Marion Wright and George Ames of section 3; Lula May Vasconcellos and Dorothy Norvell of section 6, and Sarah Goacher of section 8. The illustrations which will be shown have been made by Mary Jane Walker of section 2, Wilson Lister of section 4 and Lillian Davis of section 8.

CHICKENS ARE STOLEN FROM LOCAL ROOSTS

Raids on small chicken houses continue to be made in the city by thieves. During the past few days residents of the city have reported that their poultry roosts have been visited and fowls stolen.

Early last week two residents on Eby street reported to the police that chickens were stolen from them, and Sunday and yesterday four persons told of poultry losses. Mrs. Augusta Mendonza, 1308 Elm street, reported the loss of ten chickens, William Blue of Eby street, lost three fowls and Mc Buchanan, 318 East Independence avenue, told police six chickens were stolen from him. Between ten and fifteen White Rock fowls were stolen from her home on North West street.

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT HAS SERIOUS OPERATION

Friends in the city received word Monday that Mrs. Stanley H. Wright of Los Angeles, California was to undergo a serious abdominal operation on that day in a Los Angeles hospital. She has been ill during the past winter months and the operation was finally deemed advisable.

Mrs. Wright will be remembered here as Miss Frances English. Mr. Wright was in the furniture business in this city and he and Mrs. Wright moved to California two years ago.

GREENE COUNTY COUPLE ANSWER FINAL SUMMONS

Funeral Services for Mr. and Mrs. Simmons to be Held This Afternoon

Roadhouse, Feb. 23.—Mrs. Cynthia Ann Simmons, aged 72 years, passed away at her home southeast of here this afternoon at two o'clock, death being due to pneumonia. Her husband, Mr. E. Simmons, age 76, passed away last Saturday evening at seven-thirty o'clock, from the same affliction.

Funeral services for the aged couple will be held this afternoon at the Oakdale Baptist church two and one-half miles southeast of Roadhouse.

Rev. A. J. Conkie will be in charge of the services. Burial will be made in the Jones cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons resided on a small farm four miles east of White Hall, coming there from Scott county, near Winchester, nearly thirty years ago.

They are survived by three children: Mrs. William B. Barham, and Charles Simmons, all residing in the neighborhood, and three grandchildren. Mrs. Simmons also leaves one sister, Mrs. Ellen Moore of Waverly.

THIEVES OBTAIN LITTLE IN THEFT IN PIKE COUNTY

Pittsfield, Ill., Feb. 23.—The Pittsfield Chamber of Commerce rooms, on the ground floor, south side of the square, were broken into some time Sunday night, and the place ransacked, but nothing of value has been reported missing.

Desk drawers were pulled open, the contents dumped on the floor, and a large list of names for the credit bureau department, was taken to a rear room and the cards thrown into a pile, mixing them all up.

In one of the desk drawers was a little stamp book, which had 24 cents worth of stamps in it, and some pennies. These stamps and pennies were all that so far has been found missing.

Jesse M. Thompson, secretary-manager, announced to the sheriff and police that he had no idea who entered the place, nor could he see any motive for the action.

News Briefs

A city caucus has been called for Thursday evening at the court house, at which time candidates for city offices will be selected. This spring the city will elect a mayor, three aldermen, and city treasurer.

So far E. S. Harkrader is the only candidate to announce for mayor. Several others have been spoken of as prospective candidates, and Mayor Herbert Vertrees has not announced whether or not he will be a candidate to succeed himself.

In city elections Pittsfield usually has only one ticket in the field, and in case a second ticket is not nominated, the selection of candidates at the caucus is equivalent to election.

The caucus is held at the state highway department here to begin the survey of the northeast end of route 107, Pittsfield to Griggsville, were unable to begin the work Monday on account of the rain, but as soon as the weather permits, the survey will begin, starting at the corner of Washington and Jackson streets in Pittsfield.

Funeral Services to be Held Wednesday Afternoon in City

The death of Mrs. Susan Frances Watson, seventh child of Olive L. and Edward L. Watson occurred Monday evening, at 10:25 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. P. Allen, one mile west of Riggston. Mrs. Watson was born in Jacksonville June 15, 1861, being at the time of her death, 70 years, nine months and eight days of age.

Her parents were of the oldest residents of Jacksonville and her entire life was spent at that place, other than the last four years, which were spent with her daughter, Mrs. Allen.

She received her education in Jacksonville at what was then called the Pick Up School and "Illinois Woman's college."

On December 20, 1872 she was united in marriage to William Watson of Jacksonville, and to this union two daughters were born, both dying in infancy. A foster daughter, Mrs. Blanche Allan was then taken into their home and given all the love and devotion of an own daughter.

Mrs. Watson's husband preceded her in death twenty-eight years ago.

Early in life she united with the Methodist church and from then on was faithful and devoted member of Centenary M. E. church.

She is survived by one nephew, William H. Springer of Chicago and several grandnieces including Mrs. Ernest Stout of this city. She was the last of a family of eleven children.

The remains are at the Williamson Funeral Home where funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

LOCAL CAST HAS SUCCESS WITH THEATRE-GOERS

Putting over the "Jacksonville Idea" in pleasing style, a cast of twenty-five musicians, singers and dancers entertained Jacksonville theatre-goers last night with a 40 minute stage show that is seldom surpassed in melody and beauty. Created by Max Ischauder of the theater, Morrie Craig, orchestra leader, and other brave souls who are not afraid to try out new ideas, in several acts, the production won a big hand at the rise and the curtain and the hand was just as hearty when it went down nearly three-quarters of an hour later. The "Jacksonville Idea" show caught hold on its opening night and there were a number of repeat performances.

At Morrie Craig and his orchestra were at their best. The orchestra has several new selections that they have down to perfection and intermingled with their music are dances, songs and valets that make the revue go along at breakneck speed. The production is a thoroughly set and costumed, the trimmings for the "Idea" all coming from a St. Louis theatrical customer.

Jimmy Davison is master of ceremonies at the Fox Illinois for two nights, he is himself with credit. He introduces in several acts that received a rousing ovation on the opening night.

These include Jack Vickery and Lucile Boring in dances, the Misses Hunter, Wilson and Duncan in songs and a Charlotte Thompson soloist.

There is a new dance by Elizabeth Capps and a chorus under the direction of Miss Lucile Mackness.

The "Jacksonville Idea" production will be given a second and last time at the theater tonight.

OPERATOR OF BEAUTY PARLOR IS SUICIDE

Chicago, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Depressed over the marriage of a former sweetheart to another woman, Mary Louise Hanley, 27, owner of a beauty parlor, leaped to her death from a window on the thirteenth floor of the Morrison hotel today.

She fell on a courtyard supporting the skylight of the building, three floors from the ground. She had left home this morning, registering at the Loop hotel under a new name.

A note on the dresser in her room asked forgiveness from her mother and brother, ending: "Will it be lucky again?" The brother, Jack Hanley, an engineer, said she had been depressed ever since the former sweetheart married.

A detective squad was just leaving with Miss Hanley's body when a call came from the mezzanine floor of the same hotel. They found Elizabeth Meyers, 27, attempting to die by slashing her wrists. She was rushed to a hospital and will live.

PATIENT AT HOSPITAL

Clara Virginia Thomas, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orla Thomas, is receiving treatment at Our Saviour's hospital.

College Societies

Phi Alpha and Sigma Pi societies of Illinois State Normal University, at Normal, Ill., are planning to hold a joint bachelorette party at the close of their separate programs held in their own halls at Old Beecher. The question was stated: "Resolved: that the Baumes Habitual Criminal Acts should be incorporated as a part of the Federal Constitution." and was argued from the affirmative standpoint by Wilkerson and Watson of Sigma Pi and from the negative by Cully and McBratney of Phi Alpha. It was a no-decision contest.

The earlier programs of the two society meetings were held as follows:

Declarators: Chapin, "Fleur-de-Lis"; Trickett, "Merchants in Cathay"; Readers: Martin, "A French Fare"; Hinds, excerpts from "Mother India."

Essays: Dwight Smith, "Peace"; Stuart, "Is Great to be Drunk"; Extemporizer: Bunch, "Development of Aviation."

Phi Alpha.

Essays: Beane, "A Donation from Hoover to the Red Cross"; Cloyd, "Experience."

Orator: Moore, "Wickersham Report."

Impromptu: Beane, "Social Room Follow-up"; McBratney, "Blind Dates at What a Cost"; Bitter, "Disillusion."

Girdler, "How Phi Alpha Improves."

Extemporizer: Subject: "Has The Chicago Tribune a Right to Exist?"

Edward Sieber of Jacksonville and Delbert Hughes of Dongole, Illinois, were taken into active membership at this Phi Alpha meeting.

Gamma Nu.

A debate and other forms of public speaking comprised the program given last evening in the meeting of Gamma Nu. The order followed was:

Essays: Bundren, "Will Power"; Anderson, "Football Galore."

Declarators: Woods, "If I Didn't Know Your Husband"; Davis, "When You Get to Know a Fellow" by Guest.

Orator: Weber, "Education for Peace."

Reader: Ragsdale, "An Encounter with an Interview" by Clemens; Hopper, "Smart Folks are Easy to Fool" by Kirby.

Extemporizers subject: "How Long Will Gamma Nu Continue to Rank Last Scholastically?" with Cody, Hayes, Peter, Brede, Weber and Turnquist responding.

Turnquist, a former member of Gamma Nu, gave the parody, "The Chicago Tribune Subject" to the program. The debate had for its question, "Resolved: that the United States should establish the dele system" and was upheld on the affirmative by Beedle and Hildenstien and on the negative by New and Asbach.

The vote was 3 to 0 in favor of the affirmative and merits of the question accompanied the decision.

THIRTY-FIVE AT M. E. CONFERENCE IN CITY MONDAY

Approximately thirty-five ministers and a few laymen from the Jacksonville district of Methodist assembled yesterday morning and afternoon in the Grace M. E. church for the first of a series of conferences to be conducted in this city. Dr. Frank Lindhorst of Chicago, conference leader, presided over the three different meetings planned. When the group again gathered in the afternoon attention turned to the question, "What is the Main Object of Religious Education?" The program for the conference a week in advance, or March second, was mapped out and readings assigned in the library books so that reports may be made at that time. The third and last session will be on March ninth.

A short rope had been knotted around Jacobson's neck and tied to a door knob. Several chairs in his home had been overturned and the contents of several drawers were strewn about the floor. His pockets were turned inside out and the family said $800 in bonds could not be found.

The body was found by Mrs. Jacobson, two sons and a daughter when they returned home after visiting friends. Jacobson was treasurer of the Progressive Order of the West, a fraternal organization.

BELIEVE INSURANCE MAN WAS MURDERED

Chicago, Feb. 23.—(AP)—The body of Walter D. Jacobson, Chicago agent for the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, was found today in his home under conditions which led police to investigate the possibility of murder.

A short rope had been knotted around Jacobson's neck and tied to a door knob. Several chairs in his home had been overturned and the contents of several drawers were strewn about the floor. His pockets were turned inside out and the family said $800 in bonds could not be found.

The body was found by Mrs. Jacobson, two sons and a daughter when they returned home after visiting friends. Jacobson was treasurer of the Progressive Order of the West, a fraternal organization.

INDIAN GIVES TALK AT ROUTT STUDENT MEET

Member of Clallam Tribe is Speaker Here Monday Afternoon

Leon Braveheart, American Indian of the Clallam tribe, entertained the students of Routt College yesterday afternoon with very interesting studies of Indian lore. Mr. Braveheart, who has spent most of his time since his student days in research and lecturing. The talk was both entertaining and instructive. The lecturer exhibited charts depicting the various signs used by the Indians in their letters to one another. He touched on the origin and interpretation of Totem Poles, on the various theories concerning the origin of the Indian name, on the personal traditions by which the Indians of one nation are distinguished from those of another. Of particular interest were Mr. Braveheart's remarks about the Indian languages. He described the characteristic notes of what are thought by some to have been five major tongues and gave a number of examples of these differences.

Normal State Teachers In Running For Championship In Little Nineteen Finish

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 23.—(AP)—The Normal State Teachers of Illinois are successful in their encounter with the State Teachers of Normal Tuesday night. The Normal Teachers will be the 1931 Little Nineteen champions. Even though Normal drops this game to Wesleyan and later will be in the running.

When this week's 13 conference games are played off, eight schools—Southern Teachers, State Normal, Shurtleff, Wesleyan Teachers, Menmouth College, Millikin University, Illinois Wesleyan and North Central will have concluded their 1931 cage schedules.

This is the first time in the history of the Little Nineteen conference, experts claim, that there have been so many outstanding contenders for the title. Joe Cogoli's State Normal Redbirds, setting the pace for the Little Nineteen colleges, with 11 wins and only one defeat, will open the week's competition Tuesday with Valley Forge's Illinois Wesleyan Titans.

North Central close on the heels of the Redbirds with 10 wins and one defeat. Like Normal has but one game to play before winding up their season's efforts on the hardwood. This game will be played Saturday with Wheaton college and will most likely serve to add another to Central's list of wins. However, if the Normal Redbirds are successful in the encounter with the Titans tomorrow, a North Central victory would count for naught as far as the title is concerned, for the Teachers will have 12 wins and one loss to their credit while the best North Central could do would be 11 victories with one defeat.

Western Teachers of Macomb, was eliminated by North Central last week. The Teachers have made a strong bid for the conference honors by downing eight opponents and suffering but two defeats. Even though Normal University loses their game with Wesleyan and the Western

BRUSHING UP SPORTS . . . By Laufer

BASEBALL'S BIGGEST BONERS

THE MOST talked of boner in baseball was Fred Merkle's failure to touch second in the last scheduled game of 1908. It forced a playoff and cost the Giants a pennant. Merkle was on first and Bridwell on third when Harry McCormick hit safely to center. Bridwell crossed the plate and Merkle, thinking the game won, cut sharply and raced to the clubhouse without touching second. It is generally accepted that Johnny Evers was first to notice Merkle's boner as he made the putout that saved the day for the Cubs. But credit must go to "Circus Solly" Hoffman, center fielder, who retrieved the ball in a milling crowd of fans and threw to Evers. If Hoffman hadn't been on his toes that day, the ball would have nestled in the pocket of a souvenir-hunting bleacherite.

FAN BREEZES by Ernest Savage

All basketball lovers should turn out tonight if they want to see something which will go down in the history books as the battle of the season. It's between Routt and Illinois city championship for the first time in history. Not only will it be the first city championship battle, but it will be a battle between two strong teams.

The Tigers, undefeated to date on their home court, returned from Kansas tired out. Coach Burns said last night. He explained the loss of the game out in Kansas as resulting from failure of officials to call bodily contact as closely as it is called in Illinois. The first time this year Burns has said anything about officials, which gives more credence to this story.

The coach was not angry because the Kansas officials failed to call roughness, because it simply isn't being done out there. None of his boys were bruised and battered in the game, which relieved the situation somewhat. Burns now is waiting to catch the Kansas in the Central States Deaf tournament.

And Routt—no one knows just how strong their last eight games, and only one of them has been close. Quincy forced Routt to resort to Dick Merrill tactics, but the Rockets came through.

Quincy is still talking about the Wegmeyer masterpiece. Hung in the last of the last minute of play and winning the basketball game. The story comes to us this way: with only a little over a half minute to go, Coach Wallace Baptist pulled Wagner, a second team forward, off the bench and sent him into the game. Dickens fired once after the next tip-off and missed, the ball coming back to Wagner. Wagner flipped it quickly and it sank into the net with a swish that hushed the huge throng crowded into the Quincy armory.

That's another thing—Quincy always fills up its armory for high school basketball games, and Routt has become one of the best drawing cards on the schedule. Probably there are hundreds of Quincy fans who do not know what Routt is, but they do know that a team from Jacksonville has the uncomfortable habit of appearing on the schedule once a year and knocking off the home club.

We understand that we erred when we said the district track and field meet of the Big Twelve conference would be held in Jacksonville. Prin. J. C. Mutch states that he has not learned where this district's track and field preliminaries will be held, but that the intellectual and commercial events will be held here. We're sorry.

If any of the readers of this column of sports have been reading the column they probably will be glad to know that the artist who draws "Boots and Her Buddies" is Earl Martin, a former Monmouth college student. Martin was graduated in 1921 from the college and has been drawing for NEA service almost ever since.

Art Bergstrom, who went to the finals of the I. H. S. A. state tournaments along with two other officials, has been assigned to the Mt. Carmel district. Bergstrom, in telling about his assignment, said he had placed an order for an armchair, because the teams in that section of the state play clean basketball.

Bill Roellig, who has appeared on local courts more times this winter than any other official, has been assigned to the Bloomington district. Leo Johnson, Millikin athletic director and Hank Gill, basketball coach, have been assigned to Mattoon and Monticello, respectively. J. A. Karch, former Illinois college student,

A. C. Bostwick's Mate And Griffin Watkin's Insko May Be Up In The Derby

New York, Feb. 23.—(AP)—The future of A. C. Bostwick's Mate and Griffin Watkin's Insko will be up among the leaders, battling for the $50,000 purse, when the turf's best dash down the Churchill Downs stretch on May 16 in the Kentucky derby.

Mate, third to Jamestown and Equipoise in the Belmont futurity, third to Equipoise and Twenty Grand in the Pimlico futurity and third in money making in the 1930 two-year-old stakes, is being held as the third choice in the derby books at odds varying from 8 to 1 to 10 to 1. Insko, which comes out of Chicago as the hope of the west against the strong eastern array, is quoted at 10 to 1 in one book, while another offers high as 20 to 1. The two colts hold similar positions in the future books for the Preakness to be run at Pimlico May 9.

The Bostwick colt scored five stakes victories among his eight triumphs in 15 starts as a two year old.

Insko, a son of Sir Gallahad III, which sired Gallant Fox, was pounds the best of any two year old developed in the midwest. Bad luck trailed the fleet colt, however, when he invaded the east, an injury preventing old turf division, is being held as the third choice in the derby books at odds varying from 8 to 1 to 10 to 1. Insko, which comes out of Chicago as the hope of the west against the strong eastern array, is quoted at 10 to 1 in one book, while another offers high as 20 to 1. The two colts hold similar positions in the future books for the Preakness to be run at Pimlico May 9.

There is no doubt about Insko's sprinting ability. At Arlington Park he set a new track record of 1:06 for five and one-half furlongs.

Willie Hoppe Wins New York, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Willie Hoppe, veteran New York cueist, defeated Eric Hagelacher of Germany, 400 to 374, in the opening match of the international 18.2 ballline billiard tournament at the Strand academy today.

The game lasted three hours and went 14 innings before Hoppe could run out the block with an unfinished cluster of 12.

The tournament, a double round robin in which Kihney Matsuyama of Japan, and Welker Cochran of Hollywood, also are contestants, is sponsored by the newly formed federation of billiard players. Jake Schaeffer, world's champion, is not entered.

A college professor might make something out of the following collection of facts.

Johnny Hodapp, the Cleveland infielder, is the only member of the Indians infield brigade who never attended college. Some of the others went to college for only a couple of years. But they went. And several of them graduated.

The other Cleveland infielders are Morgan, Lind, Fonseca, Hummel, Goldman, Delore and Burnett.

When a Clevelandian goes to an infield pop they all use the time-honored but grammatically incorrect baseball expression: "I got it."

But Hodapp, who never went to college, and doesn't know a trigonometry from a repressed desire, who got his schooling on sandlots, minor league fields, Pullmans and hotel lobbies, when he goes after a pop fly, he yells loudly, but correctly: "I have it."

JIM LONDOS BEATS JIM M'MILLEN

New York, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Jim Londos of Greece, defended his disputed heavyweight wrestling championship before 20,000 wildly yelling fans in Madison Square Garden, throwing Jim McMillen, former University of Illinois football lineman, after 40 minutes and 15 seconds of wrestling.

The end came with Londos riding McMillen in midring tugging industriously at the latter's left leg as the former football star pounded the floor with clenched fists.

Londos previously had slammed McMillen to the mat with the so-called airplane spin.

The big crowd, all the Garden would hold, paid $60,000 to see the show.

RAIN STOPS PRACTICE

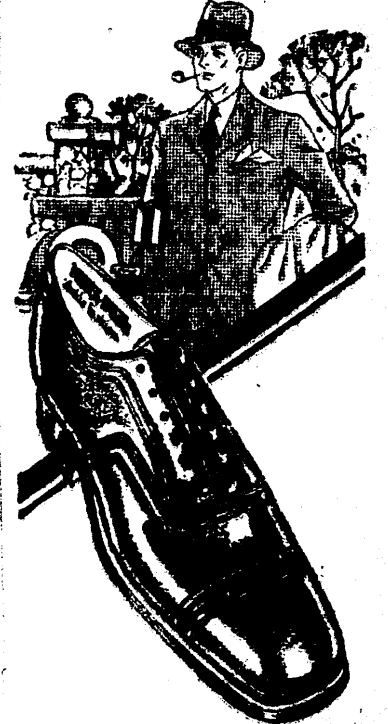

New Orleans, La., Feb. 23.—(AP)—A torrent of rain prevented battymen of the Cleveland Americans from testing bats today, the first of the training season. They tossed medicine balls under the grandstand instead. Wes Ferrell, star right hander, was the only absentee, and he is expected tomorrow.

YANKS GET BUSY

St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Joe McCarthy had his first official look at the New York Yankees today as 18 players answered the roll call for the opening practice of the spring work probably will begin no later than training season. "Moose Joe" called only for limbering exercises but hard tomorrow.

WILDCATSWAMP MINNESOTA FIVE

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 23.—(AP)—The University of Minnesota basketball team lost its opportunity tonight to tie for first place in the Big Ten conference when it was defeated by Northwestern, 45 to 23.

The Gophers were unable to place their shots and the result was virtually a walkaway for the Wildcats from the start of the contest.

The largest crowd ever assembled in the university field house watched the Gophers go down to defeat. A total of 12,182 tickets had been sold for the event.

Bert Riel, speedy forward for Northwestern, was the outstanding star of the game. He accounted for seven field goals and clocked every time when he had an opportunity for free throws.

Joe Reiff, six-foot-one Northwestern forward, piled up a total of 11 points for the Wildcats but he missed four free throws.

Schoening, Minnesota forward, rang up 11 of the Gopher points while Nordgaard, center, accounted for five. Northwestern led at the half, 20 to 5.

GIANTS RAINED OUT

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 23.—(AP)—A drizzling rain, a disagreeable day all around, led Dave Bancroft, acting manager of the New York Giants, to go fishing today and call off the first workout of the campaign. The 19 players on hand did spend most of the afternoon fango hitting but that was all the work that was done.

DANIEL FUNERAL TO BE WEDNESDAY

Murphyville, Feb. 23.—(AP)—E. Thompson was called to Wood River this morning to bring back to the funeral home the remains of C. T. Daniel, former well known Morgan county resident, who died at 5 o'clock this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Walker, at Wood River. Mr. Daniel was agent at the C. & A. station here for 20 years.

He then went to Woodson, where he suffered a stroke. This brought his career as railway agent to an end, and he was taken to the home of his daughter in Wood River to spend the remainder of his life.

Mr. Daniel was 73 years old. Previous to being employed at Murphyville, he was station agent at Ashland. He leaves his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Walker.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning from the M. E. church here, with interment in the Ashland cemetery.

TABLE RESOLUTION FOR INVESTIGATION

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 23.—(AP)—A resolution for an investigation of the activities of Lieutenant Governor Arch McFarlane in collecting coal contracts for the Arch McFarlane coal company was tabled in the house of representatives today on a roll call vote of 61 to 23.

A request for such an investigation was made by J. C. Lewis, president of the Iowa Federation of Labor, shortly before the present session of the legislature opened. He presented testimony given at an interstate commerce commission hearing in Chicago in which he charged McFarlane had sought business from the Illinois Central railroad for the McFarlane Coal company of Waterloo.

A letter said to have been sent by McFarlane to an Illinois Central official at Waterloo was produced by Lewis. It purported to show that McFarlane had backed legislation favorable to railroad in the last session of the assembly.

McFarlane subsequently issued a statement in which he said he had backed the legislation, but had done so, not as a favor to the railroad, but as a matter of proper and needed legislation.

VETERANS' DISTRESS BEING INVESTIGATED

Washington, Feb. 23.—(AP)—President Hoover, preparatory to vetoing the veterans loan bill, is having an inquiry made throughout the country to ascertain the degree and number of veterans in distress.

At the white house today, it was said various federal agencies are making queries to ascertain how effective the legislation would be as a relief measure.

Under the bill the ex-soldier would be able to borrow up to 50 per cent of the face value of his adjusted compensation certificate.

The measure is to be vetoed between now and Thursday. Efforts are to be made in congress to override the veto at once.

Taking $1,000 as the average value of the certificates, the president was said already to have ascertained there are 210,000 veterans who would be able to borrow $10,000,000, or $50 apiece, if they had received no advance on their certificates.

In the group having certificates rising from $500 to $1,000, there are 60,000 veterans who, if they had it not previously borrowed, would be able to get $77,000,000 or $127 each.

TWO SUBMARINES WILL BE BUILT IN U. S. SOON

Washington, Feb. 23.—(AP)—The next two submarines to be built by the United States will be, on present plans, the first American undersea craft since the World War unfinished by German U-boat design.

The two vessels, soon to be laid down, are the V-8 and V-9. Less than half the size of the newest American submarines, they will retain the speed of the larger craft, equal offensive strength and unproved habitability. Their displacement will be 1,100 tons apiece.

Naval officials pointed out today that at the expiration of the London naval treaty in 1936 only 11 of the existing 8-type boats and nine V-type boats—aggregating about 27,000 tons—will be under the 13 year limit set by the treaty.

Faced with the necessity of obtaining as much strength as possible under the 13-year limit, naval designers out of the German trend toward larger submarines.

The 1,100 ton displacement of the V-8 and V-9 will compare with the 2,700 tons of the new V-6.

The present American submarine fleet consists of 40 S-boats and six V-boats. Most of the former were constructed between 1916 and 1920 when the influence of the German U-boat upon construction was strong.
